

NEWS ON THE POLITICAL HORIZON

Mayor Gives Facts On Garbage Award

Observing that considerable misinformation has been spread concerning the circumstances attending the awarding of the garbage disposal contract in 1948 and that the public has a right to know pertinent facts from the record, Mayor Lockwood, in discussing this matter with his Committee, spoke as follows:

"In 1948, when his contract was due to expire, Mr. John A. Janse came to me repeatedly with the report that both he and his family held very little interest in it, but rather were inclined to his retiring from active business, which he said he was well able to do. These frequently repeated statements were puzzling, and rather than have the City 'caught short' without an important service, the City made and equipped necessary, and stood ready to handle the service itself.

"The previous contract was not bid competitively, but in 1948 the contract was regularly advertised and two bids were received, the former contractor, being low bidder. A conference was called with the low bidder to discuss awarding the contract.

"The usual question was asked by the Mayor as to when the contractor, if awarded the contract, would be equipped to operate under the new contract. The contractor replied by asking another question, 'Do you mean to say that if I sign this contract you will enforce the specifications of the contract?'

"This latter question startled the Mayor as it struck at the core of integrity in the handling of City contracts, and the Mayor addressed two City officials present with the question: 'Has either

Janse Makes Reply To a Letter

The John A. Janse headquarters this week released a letter which Mr. Janse received together with his reply to the questions raised. The letter and Mr. Janse's reply is as follows:

"Dear Mr. Janse:—
"I never intend to run for public office hence I hasten to assure you that I have 'no axe to grind' other than to protect my family and home. I have lived in Newton only ten years and I manage a business in Boston. I would not like to embarrass you but as a potential mayor I'd like to know the answer to a few questions. I have just completed reading 'Mayor Lockwood's Answer to his Critics' and if I or any other man ran his business the way Mr. Lockwood claims to have conducted the business of Newton we would be promptly dismissed. Can you imagine a business man reporting to those having an interest in the business I received over 12,000 visitors since January 1, 1948, about 30 persons every day. Either every week is 'old home week' at Mr. Lockwood's office, or the business of the city so poorly conducted that complainants are constantly calling on the Mayor. Certainly the calls could not be business calls because I know of one Newton business man who tried four times to see the Mayor and he was refused an appointment.

"In 'Mayor Lockwood's Answer to his Critics' he tells the citizens of Newton, in substance, that he cannot put in common every day English the facts he'd like to report to the people that may have erred by voting for him. Personally, I feel insulted when the Mayor proceeds to use 'percentage figures in 17 instances'. In 1929 when I was in col-

Howard L. Rich Says That He Is Not A Candidate

It has come to my attention that some of the voters in Ward 7 believe I am a candidate for Ward Alderman. To clear up this misunderstanding I would like to state that I am not a candidate and never have considered being one.

Gath Stresses the Needs of Ward 2

As a most active member of the new Newton Republican Club executive committee, Harry Gath, Jr., 600 California street, Newtonville, candidate for alderman from Ward 2 emphasized his acceptance of the changing practices and policies of Newton voters based on the number of the younger element who co-mingled with the so called 'dyed-in-the-wool' old timers attending the club's meeting at the Frank A. Day School Friday night when United States Senator Leverett Saltonstall attended the largest gathering in the club's history.

Meeting with his ward committee at his home, Mr. Gath, said, 'I've lived in ward 2 for 25 years. I feel I almost know everybody in the ward or they know me through business connections and sports activities. I noted a definite change of spirit existed at the club's meeting and President Christian A. Herter, Jr. is to be congratulated upon the success of the affair. The club was originally

Hodgdon Releases Letter to Janse

Walter A. Hodgdon, candidate for Mayor this week released an open letter which he sent to John A. Janse, also a candidate for Mayor. The letter follows:

"Foul whisperings are abroad."

"This quotation is from Shakespeare's Macbeth, and I am taking the liberty of using it because it seems appropriate to the subject matter of my letter which follows:

"It has been brought to my attention many times in the past several months that under cover whispering campaign to help your campaign and injure mine has been going the usual rounds that such vicious slanders follow in this City. Nothing ever seems to change for the better in Newton machine politics. Two years ago, the same type of malevolent gossip was used against one of the mayoralty candidates. A violent muttering was directed against a state office holder seeking re-election in his own party's primary. For once, and we can thank our good Lord for it, the campaign of vilifications was unsuccessful, and the candidate was elected.

In 1946 he joined the VA and was brought into contact with paraplegics through the fact that a great part of their care is urological. Dr. Talbot worked in VA hospitals in Bronx, New York and Richmond, Virginia. He became Chief of Paraplegia Service at Cushing VA Hospital, Framingham, Mass., in August, 1948.

He has published numerous papers on urological problems and rehabilitation. A reception for the new Executive Director of the Chapter, Miss Marjorie R. Phelon, is planned from 6 to 6:30 preceding the dinner.

Newton's goal in the 1950 Red Feather Campaign will be $296,825.00, according to a statement from Harold T. Pillsbury, Newton Campaign Chairman.

Mr. Pillsbury stated that the goal has been set based upon the needs of the Red Feather agencies and was determined following approval by the Chest's Board of Directors of the Budget Committee's recommendation for 1950 allotments.

The recommended amounts needed by the Newton member agencies are as follows: Newton-Wellesley Hospital - $50,000; Family Service Bureau - $35,000; Newton Y.M.C.A. - $26,500; Newton District Nursing Association - $22,500; Norumbega Council Boy Scouts - $18,560; Newton Community Chest - $18,500; Newton Local Council G.R. Scouts - $14,000; Society of St. Vincent de Paul - $12,000; Rebecca Pomroy House - $6,500; West Newton Community Centre - $5,500; Newton Community Council - $5,300; All Newton Missions - $4,000; Newton Nutrition Center - $2,300; and Stone Institute - $1,800. The recommended amount as Newton's share toward the needs of the 327 Red Feather agencies in the United Community Services of Metropolitan Boston is $59,365.

With a goal of 2,250 fund raisers, Newton has more than 1,300 enrolled, and Chairman Pillsbury states that full enrollment will be completed before the start of the Residential Campaign on October

John Grandin, Jr., Heads Taxpayers Association

Stressing the urgent need for direct non-partisan support of the Commission on Federal Reorganization, Col. Edward A. Grandin, Jr., was elected President for the ensuing year. Sherman described the complete study of our Federal Government made by the by-partisan Hoover Commission. He highlighted the Commission's finding that we wasted, in 1948, more money than the total cost of government in 1928.

In fact, Mrs. Hovgaard revealed, a number of committees have their individual programs already so well in hand that only details remain to be ironed out. Among the first "progress" reports received from chairmen are the following:

The Newton Angler

Shotgun Plug Sizes

Last year, many of the local gunners brought up the question regarding the specific sizes of the shotgun transformers, or plugs, required by law to be used in all repeating shotguns in the taking of migratory game birds.

Before you go into the field, be sure your shotgun magazine is fitted with a plug of the proper length. Hunters without plugs are subject to fines, since most local boys use Winchester shotguns, we define plug dimensions using their models.

Following are the dimensions of the plugs which limit all Winchester single barrel repeating shotguns to two shells in the magazine and one in the chamber.

The one half inch by ten and three eighths inch plug limits the capacity of some models to three, and other models to two, shells. The shotguns included are the models 1901, 97, 12, 40, 25, and 42.

On the models 1911, 40, and 25, the plug diameter should be nineteen thirty-eighths inch diameter by six and eleven sixteenths inches long. On the model 42 the plug dimension should be three eighths inch diameter, by ten and nine sixteenths inches. It might be well to check these dimensions before you go afield.

Strippers Migrating

During the past week two West Roxbury striper anglers reported to me that smaller strippers in fairly large schools have appeared off-shore on the lower Cape.

Up until recently the two anglers have been getting fish ranging from six to sixteen pounds, but these have disappeared.

Local Cape anglers predict that this is the start of the fall migration and usually signifies the end of the striper fishing in that section. The larger fish that migrate south during late October usually do not come inshore.

This is true along the New Hampshire coast each year. The larger strippers leaving the Maine coast each fall usually run far off shore, and the New Hampshire anglers get about two weeks of good, active fishing for small strippers only.

There are still plenty of big strippers along our shore, and I just had the pleasure of seeing my largest one of the year.

I went into Green's Bait Shop one morning last week at Quincy point to get some shiners, and while I was waiting for them to be packed, a Quincy man brought in a striper that weighed exactly 49 pounds and two ounces. The fish no doubt would be tops in a number of contests, but the fisherman had not registered in any of them. He was not eligible for the Shaeffer Salt Water Derby since he was not a member of a club that was participating in it.

The fish was taken in the canal, just opposite the Herring Run, on an atom plug which he used for the first time. He previously fished with a sea worm and a long spinner.

Rain Opens Forests

Following the recent heavy rains, the forests in all counties have now been opened so that you can again hunt everywhere in the Commonwealth.

This will be good news for the upland game hunters, and they will now be able to hunt in Barnstable, Plymouth and Bristol Counties where many of the boys have had their best shooting in recent years.

The two Cape counties are heavily populated this year with grouse, pheasant and rabbits. Bristol County has always been good for pheasants and rabbits in past years.

Bass, Pickerel Striking Higher and cooler waters everywhere has given the boys some real good bass and pickerel fishing again this past week.

A group of West Roxbury anglers fished the Charles River on Sunday and got the best action of the year. Bass and pickerel continue to strike hard, almost everywhere but no real big ones are being taken.

We did run into that group of underdone bass that are fairly abundant up river from Dedham. Some of these little bass are taking large frogs and hit as hard as some of the big fish, but most of the action is on larger size chub.

Since this group of small bass have become active in the river, there has been very few calico bass taken. Earlier in the season the calico seemed to predominate, and where they have disappeared to, no one seems to know.

Muskies Look Big

Local trappers are looking forward to some good muskrat trapping this fall along the banks of the Charles River.

At this time, they seem very plentiful. The fall of 1947 was a profitable one for those trapping in this area, but 1948 was a very poor year and many of the trappers gave up early in the season. One of the trappers who has worked the Medfield area for years advised me that the outlook for the coming season appears very good. I was in the Dover-Medfield section late Sunday evening and we saw many of them. They all seemed to be exceptionally large ones.

Branches and Twine

During the past week end there were more anglers fishing the local waters than at any time this season.

Most people have returned back from their vacation spots, where many of them do not doubt became interested in fishing and have decided to continue enjoying it until the cold weather sets in. Entire families turned out everywhere with all types of fishing tackle from high class spinning equipment to birch trees with white twine and the wrong type of hook.

It was really interesting to watch one of the youngsters trying to outdo his brother. At the Dedham Pumping Station, I met two Rosindale brothers who had come all the way up by bicycle. The older boy had a Heidon rod and reel fully equipped while the brother had cut a pole along the shore and had equipped it with some pieces of white twine.

Neither had caught a fish when I first met them and they were about ready to quit. Later met them at the Charles River Bridge and the boys had four nice perch and one pickerel which was about thirteen and one half inches long.

To my surprise, I learned that all the fish were caught by the younger brother with his makeshift equipment.

Have you ever noticed, as you drive along the Charles River, fishermen at certain spots almost every time you pass these spots on weekends and holidays?

These boys are real active anglers and lovers of fishing. They open the season on April 15 and fish until the snow starts flying.

They usually fish from early morning until late in the evening. Most of these men come from out of town and travel by street car to the Charles River Bridge and then walk to their favorite fishing spot.

You can see one of them each weekend fishing below the bridge at the Dedham Pumping Station where he has fished for at least five years to my knowledge.

This man comes all the way from Chelsea each weekend by street car and is located at his spot about six o'clock each day he does not work. He fishes alone, abides by every law of conservation and never kicks if the fishing is good or bad. He just loves the sport and is a good example of a good sportsman even if he cannot tell you in our native tongue.

Fall Meetings Start

The Norfolk County League of Sportsmen's Clubs held their first meeting of the fall season when they met at the Nehodden Sportsmen Club at Needham Heights with president Russell Robinson presiding.

The Westwood Gun Club of Westwood became a member club of the league at this meeting.

Rabbit Topics

A move is under way by a committee from the Stoughton Fish and Game Association to have the Norfolk County League endeavor to have the ban on the importation and liberation of rabbits lifted in Massachusetts.

There are many pros and cons to be discussed regarding this subject. If the ban is lifted, it might mean the introduction of larger rabbits and hares than we have had in this area in the past. It might also bring some of the dreaded rabbit diseases from other areas.

Let your sporting club know your opinion regarding this and the League will check each club before they decide to sponsor this move. This no doubt will be a hot issue throughout the entire state as many of our counties are now over populated with rabbits. There are certain sections of this country where farmers feel the population could be reduced, especially after their experiences during the past summer.

Hunting Annual on Stands
Sports Afield Hunting Annual has just appeared on all news stands, which is a sure sign that fall is here and the hunting season is about to get underway.

This 1949-50 edition is no doubt the best one ever published and will interest any sports-minded member of the family from Junior to Dad. It will make a swell gift for any hunter and is very reasonably priced.

lege we were taught that such reporting in percentages was old time stuff, not acceptable because it could be construed as an attempt to befuddle the student, reader or citizen. Strangely enough, I know many people and I mean 95 out of every 100 Newton people must be disappointed with having a Mayor who admits, in print, his lack of easy-to-understand city information.

"We were told in the Mayor's report 'Critics who are not well grounded economists... will recognize... complex figures.' This is so ridiculous I am prompted to write you to ask if you feel that you as Mayor must be one of those 'well grounded economists'?" As a Newton family man home-owner I have to balance my home budget. That is a 'must' in our business affairs as applies to family life as my private business. We know we have so many dollars coming in each week and certain fixed re-occurring and non-recurring expenses. The only difference between the business of the city of Newton and my home or my business is the volume. Statistics happen to be a hobby of mine but I am bored to death with reference to figures of 1900, 1909, 1924, 1929 and the 30's just to prove what we all know—that costs have risen.

"If you become Mayor, Mr. Janse, will you publish what radio announcers term 'mumbo jumbo, medicine man treatment' such as Newton made ready offers, in his report, namely that Newton taxes are lower than the average of 39 cities; yet costs have risen?" "Every man who has had time to read his article over and over can learn that with 57 per cent less employees we the people of Newton are getting increased municipal services. This is a natural evolution due to the employment of machinery bought with the taxpayers' money. Why does the Mayor submit such a report to an intelligent Newton citizen in an attempt to give them a comfortable feeling of contentment and ease when the true facts are known, or should be, that the introduction of modern equipment has lowered the costs.

"Please, Mr. Janse, take time to answer my letter as soon as you can because if you give me a business like answer I shall let every one of my acquaintances know your reply."

CHARLES W. RYDER
325 Walnut Street
Newtonville, Mass.

John A. Janse, candidate for Mayor of Newton made ready answer to Mr. Charles W. Ryder in response to his quizzical letter addressed to the candidate as printed above.

In reply, Mr. Janse wrote: "In response to your letter of Sept. 30 it is an pleasure for me to set forth herein what my method will be in reporting to Newton voters just how their money is to be spent in advance of actual spending."

"Monthly, I shall issue a list of planned expenditures and income, department by department, at no expense to the city. My report shall be in dollars and cents. Percentages will never be used except when requested. Reference will be made to similar expense and income for the same period of the previous year together with reasons for the differences."

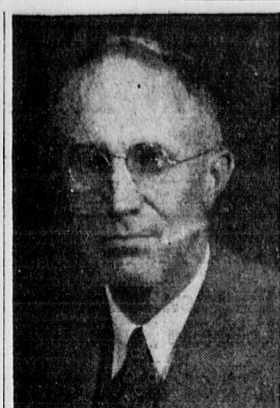

"As a successful businessman I know this is how every businessman keeps control of his business in order to steer the business properly."

"When I report on the condition of Newton as compared with other cities I shall refer to specific examples comparable with similar cities to Newton and not be influenced by such cities as Boston, Worcester, Springfield and others that throw the averages of city figures so far off balance they are 'weighted', not compensating for the size of population, real estate values and uncommon expense items."

"When new equipment is bought I shall report that the taxpayers' money was spent to reduce certain costs or added municipal service to Newton home owners and rent-payers thus reporting the cause rather than the effect by itself."

"I promise you and all the voters of Newton that there will be no 'mumbo-jumbo' in my reports because I've been in the habit of conducting a business with its customary governmental reports. Accordingly you will get facts that are simple to understand."

"My business habits resulting from experience over the last twenty five years leaves me no room but to supply you and

"HOWEVER WE dislike everything that remotely looks or sounds like Communism, it is a fact of world-wide significance that the people of China are accepting a leadership which calls itself Communist," says Dr. Earle H. Ballow, formerly of Peiping, North China, and now acting Secretary for China under the American Board of Foreign Missions, Boston, Mass. Dr. Ballow will speak this Sunday morning, October 9th in the Central Congregational Church of Newtonville, Dr. Randolph S. Merrill, minister.

All Newton citizens with factual information that I know you will welcome.

"To your query 'should a well grounded economist be necessary to interpret the past I shall be the first to hire one but I am quite certain this will be unnecessary because the board of aldermen have been able to operate the city with out such talents even though they listen to taxpayers sides of an issue then retire behind closed doors to record decisions without explanation to the voters, a practice that merits modernization—the Janse way."

"I want your vote and that of many more Newton citizens and not by a mere majority. I know from personal observation what you want to know—that if I cannot report favorably upon my stewardship at city hall I shall not be elected for a second term."

"For your information I have figured that I spent 15,000 hours in Newton city hall while I was under contract just to be sure Newton businessmen, home owners and rent payers were given the service they were paying for. Compare! If my answers are not complete and to your satisfaction will you please inform me!"

The only events the committee will divulge are games, movies, a magician, and refreshments; but not a word will they give out about the unexpected eye-openers in store.

Those who have planned the jolly events are Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Massih, Mrs. Totaro, Mrs. Glibern, Mrs. Hartigan and Mrs. Arcand. The Publicity Chairman, Mrs. Hartigan states that "we decided to hold our kindergarten party in the afternoon, from 3 to 5 p.m. We have things pretty well planned and I would say we are on our way to a successful party."

Mr. John Parkinson, Waban Coordinator, and Mrs. Mary Derr and Mrs. Joyce Jerome, co-chairmen for the Angier School jollies, jointly announce the following room chairmen: kindergarten (A.M.), Mrs. Theodore Casselman; kindergarten (P.M.), Mrs. Herbert W. Winder; grade 1, Mrs. Richard Morgan, Mrs. John Carven and Mrs. Jerome Grossman; grade 2, Mrs. Richard Henkens, Mrs. Edward Dangel and Mrs. Michael Hueston; grade 3, Mrs. Richard Morse, Mrs. Charles Maloney and Mrs. James Currens; grade 4, Mrs. Francis Turner and Mrs. Chester Singer; grade 5, Mrs. Robert Brandt, Mrs. Herbert R.

Other Association officers elected were as follows: Wendell R. K. Mick, vice-president, Joseph Mason Williams, vice-president, Stewart G. Orr, treasurer, and Gilman W. Conant, clerk. Directors elected were Foy E. Argersinger, William M. Cahill, Dr. David C. Dittmore, William Doyle, Frederick B. Eastman, William Albert Callup, William G. Johnson, Henry W. Keyes, Kelix W. to destroy responsibility in governmental management in Newton than all our part-time Mayors since Newton was founded. My aim is to correct this arrogant dictatorship mismanagement of our city's affairs. This statement of mine should, for all time, be accepted as a truthful declaration of the ethical honesty of my position. "You may not like this, but I have been told that another rumor has been circulating throughout our city. It concerns your candidacy. It suggests that your early announcement was to help Lockwood and the machine by forestalling the entry of such candidates as Roy Edwards and Hugh Boyd."

And all who heard it made enlargements too;
In every ear it spread, on every tongue it grew."

Rhoda White, Community Service Chairman, announced that all members will be asked to contribute time every month to the New England Peabody Home for Crippled Children entertaining the children. Supplies for this project will be furnished by the club.

Ruth Daniels, Program Chairman, introduced the speaker of the evening, Mrs. Grace Mitchell, who gave an interesting talk entitled "Pigtails to Permalots." She exhibited her very fine collection of combs and hairpieces and discussed the many types hairstyling both of today and long ago.

Refreshments of donuts and cider were served and the Hal-loween table decoration which was especially clever and appropriate included a centerpiece of a large pumpkin Jack-o-Lantern which held a bouquet of yellow and orange pompons. Orange candles on either side glowed in a semi-darkened Hal-loween atmosphere. Alice Jorgensen, Reba Townsend and Ruth Burns were in charge of refreshments.

The local profession is cooperating by offering free sugar tests on urine specimens left at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital Laboratory at any time during the week of October 10-16. Reports will be sent to your doctor who should be contacted 2-3 days after leaving the specimen. Sugar in the urine does not necessarily mean diabetes but should be investigated.

The meeting is open to the public without charge.

Campaign-

20. Solicitation in the Advance Gifts, Mercantile, Manufacturing, and Municipal Divisions has already started.

The "Kick-off" Dinner of the Residential Campaign will be held Thursday evening October 20, at Newton High School. Invitations to this dinner are going out early next week to all workers in the Campaign, to Chest and agency officers, boards of directors, and staffs, to former Chest campaigners, and to other prominent citizens.

The Manufacturing Division launched its Campaign on September 29 when twelve members of the Committee met with Chairman Pillsbury at Brae Binn. At this meeting Mayor Theodore R. Lockwood, a former Chairman of this Committee, was the principal speaker. The same afternoon the Municipal Division got underway with a meeting of school Captains at the Trade School, with Wesley Merritt Chairman of the School Section, and Evan Johnson, Chairman of the Municipal General Division. Harold T. Pillsbury, Campaign Chairman, was the principal speaker at this meeting. Following the school meetings, further meetings were held at City Hall, first with department heads and later with employees. At these meetings, F. Brittain Kennedy, President of the Chest, was the principal speaker.

Important pre-Campaign meetings have been in swing this week in the Residential Division with Chairman, Assistant Chairmen, Majors, and Captains of the villages of Waban, Newton Highlands, Upper Falls, and Lower Falls meeting at the Congregational Church Parish House in Newton Highlands; Auburndale, West Newton, Newtonville, and Nonantum meetings at St. John's Episcopal Church Parish House in Newtonville; and Newton Centre, Newton, Chestnut Hill, Oak Hill, and Waban Hill meetings at the Parochial School Hall in Newton Centre. Workers' meetings are being planned by Captains at their homes or in groups with their Majors during the evenings next week. At these meetings Captains will give out their assignments, distribute the Campaign material, and instruct the workers as to the needs of this Campaign.

formed and has held to this policy throughout its short history. The response was most gratifying because it gave positive indication that Newton citizens are willing to accept the change that must be adopted by the Republican party in their acceptance of the independent voters who refuse to be bound by dictatorial methods, especially the younger age group who have minds of their own. I feel I represent this group and know their wants and desires from myself as an independent member of the Board of Aldermen.

"I again emphasize my familiarity with the needs of Ward 2 both as a business owner and home owner whatever the specific matter is before the board of Aldermen. I'm a 'round-the-clock' resident of Ward 2."

Referring to Newton's senior senator, Mr. Gath, said, "There's a top ranking Newton citizen who has kept pace with the changing times, whose support of programs and policies of the yesterdays would never enter his mind today. In my generation 'Lev' has certainly broadened out in his views on many, many matters. You could almost see him 'wearing that South Boston face' he was once told to wear. His election last time proves that acceptance by the Massachusetts public. Newton needs exactly that kind of change and I am proud that the Newton Republican Club is making every effort to accomplish just that."

"For your information, all credit is due the Newton police department for the efficient way in which they handled the traffic that night in spite of the conditions existing due to the Crafts street re-building."

Mr. Gath has arranged a number of house rallies in his district for this week.

Fall IS THE PROPER TIME TO PLANT GRASS SEEDS

Evening dews and cooler nights encourage rapid growth of Fall planted grass seeds.

Most weed seeds will remain dormant until Spring. If your lawn grass is thin then scratch the soil to remove dead grass and expose soil. Plant new seeds in soil — not in dead mat of stems.

If your lawn is burned out then we suggest you ask for our special bulletin treating on drought renovations. Just phone or drop us a card. It is free for the asking. Most lawn failures are due to cheap seed mixtures or lack of fertilizer, or both. Seed must be perennial variety otherwise each season the grass thins out, making space for weeds and crabgrass. A well fed lawn of perennial seeds gets heavier and stronger each year thus forcing weeds out.

Our 25 years experience blending seeds for Golf Courses assures us of the "know how." We use the same quality seeds for lawns as for golf courses. Better seeds cost more but make better lawns.

Household Hints

I have a lovely black lacquered credenza which seems to be taking on a grayish cast. What is happening? Can I prevent this from going further?—Mrs. H. B.

Use of an oil polish on lacquered furniture will sometimes produce a gray-blue bloom. Get a small quantity of "green" soap from your druggist. Make a pad of soft cloth, wet it in cool water, wring it nearly dry, then dip it into the soap. Rub on a small section of the wood, rinse thoroughly with a clean, damp pad and dry with a very soft cloth. Polish with the grain.

Wax is preferred over an oil polish for lacquered furniture, but use it sparingly.

Can you give me some idea of the amount of ingredients needed to serve potato salad to 250 people.—Mrs. J. A.

A large order, not for us but for you. To serve 250 people with approximately four-ounce portions of potato salad you'll need 50 pounds of potatoes, cooked, diced and marinated with 7 1/2 cups of French dressing. Add 5 ounces salt or more to taste, 2 1/2 cups mild vinegar, 40 (or more) hard-cooked, diced eggs, 1 1/4 pounds green peppers, chopped, a scant 2 pounds pimiento, chopped, 5 pounds celery cut in rings, and 5 cups mayonnaise. Mix carefully so potatoes aren't mashed.

I want to put deck canvas on a sun deck. How should it be laid on a wood floor? This flooring was treated with creosote, consequently, paint wears off quickly.—Mrs. T. J.

Get heavy roofing canvas of the best quality. Floor boards should be tight and even—replace any that aren't. Make a soft paste of white lead and linseed oil; apply in a fairly thick bed to the floor.

Stretch the first strip of canvas at the edge of the roof, rolling it into the paste and securing it with long copper tacks put in an inch apart all around. Lay the second stretch with its edge overlapping the edge of the first one by 2 inches. Put paste under the overlap and secure by tacks.

Continue in this way. When the roof is covered, put on a priming coat of porch paint or deck enamel and, when it is dry, two more coats of the same, used as it comes from the can.

I know that veal is young beef, but where does calf come into the butcher's picture?—Mrs. L.

Meat marked "Veal" usually comes from animals less than 14 weeks old, fed largely on milk products. The stamp "Calf" means that the animal has passed the veal stage but has not yet taken on beef characteristics. The meat is firmer and coarser in texture than veal, is deeper red and has more fat. Its flavor is a little stronger than veal.

tion in the contract was not to be enforced? One Department Head replied slowly and thoughtfully, "No," and the other answered likewise.

"The Mayor asked the contractor if he heard the reply and the contractor answered emphatically that if the specifications of the contract were to be enforced he would never sign the contract."

"The Mayor then asked: 'Do you realize that what you have said here is as good as public since it is necessary for me in usual course to explain to the Board of Aldermen why it has become necessary to readvertise the contract for further bids?' The contractor made no reply."

"The contract was then readvertised, this time five bidders appearing. The former contractor was third from lowest, more than $11,000 higher than the low bidder. The low bidder, while unknown in Newton, was endorsed by three towns which he was striving, one of them Nee dham. He exhibited his equipment, supplied ample references and a first-class performance bond, and by the law, the low bidder merited the award. (The performance of the new contractor, by mathematical record, indicates a marked improvement in this City service.)

oz. tkha cmfwyp shrdl etagb

"Later, friends appeared at the Mayor's office seeking to have the contract placed with the former contractor at the price of the low bidder. The citizens of Newton realize, of course, that the rules of open bidding are inviolable, and the integrity of the City is involved in the handling of bids. Every effort must be made to encourage and protect low bids to hold down City costs, and especially is it impossible to award a contract to one who tried to secure a higher price from the City.

"What is the essential point in this narrative? The vital issue lies in whether any citizen shall tolerate the handling of City contracts—above all with the approval of a man as Mayor—by an individual who questions whether the specifications of contracts signed with the City shall be enforced."

"Every regular contractor in or about the City holds high respect for the methods of handling bids in Newton and will support the Mayor's position."

This explanation in a straightforward report reveals the facts and circumstances which it is safe to assume so disappointed one man and aroused his indignation that he concluded to become a candidate for Mayor. Stated in other words, had the Mayor agreed not to enforce the specifications of contracts, or had the Mayor awarded a contract

Newton Man Heads Harvard Bureau

At a special election held September 27, Donald E. Paradis, Newton, Wesleyan University '43, was elected president of the Harvard Legal Aid Bureau. He replaces Victor J. Baum, Detroit, Mich., Michigan '46, who resigned to accept an invitation to the Law Review. The position of vice-president, formerly held by Mr. Paradis, was filled by I. Frederick Shokin, Brooklyn, N. Y., Pennsylvania '47.

The Harvard Legal Aid Bureau is staffed by high ranking Harvard Law School students who provide legal assistance to residents of Cambridge and Greater Boston who cannot afford to retain lawyers. It maintains its principal office at Gannett House, 1311 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge, and a branch office at the North Bennet Street Industrial School in Boston.

Art Ass'n Holds First Fall Meeting

The Newton Art Association held its first fall meeting on Thursday evening, September 29, in the Bonnar Studio, 92 Bowers St., Newtonville. During the business meeting plans for a varied and educational program were discussed and Mrs. Clara Hudson was appointed secretary to replace Mrs. Harvard Weston. Sketching trips and a class in life drawing were suggested and John Enser, the well-known landscape painter, will be a guest artist in the near future.

After the meeting, Mr. Bonnar conducted an informal discussion of paintings brought in by members. An oil by Priscilla Ordway won the acclaim of all. Miss Ordway has painted the quiet and remote beauty of the north country in deep and shining tone. A most delightful work.

Following this a social hour was enjoyed with Mrs. Bonnar as hostess. There was much enthusiasm and interest shown in anticipation of the coming year. Any artist in Newton is invited to join either as an active or honorary member. The next meeting will be held Oct. 13 at the studio.

If You See a School Bus—Remember

When approaching a school bus which has stopped to take on or discharge passengers, the law requires you to stop immediately before passing no matter in which direction you are moving. Having stopped, you may then proceed to pass at not more than 10 m.p.h. This does not apply when approaching from the opposite direction on a divided highway nor unless the bus carries the "School Bus" sign.

Protect our children — obey this law.

Sunny Side of War Marriages on Radio

In contrast to the frequent emphasis on the high mortality among war-time marriages, "Family Closeup," the American Broadcasting Company series based on actual family problems and broadcast in cooperation with family service agencies throughout the country, will this Sunday, October 9, tell the story of a war-time marriage that came through domestic storm intact.

The story of Bob and Ellie, whose marriage began with a college romance and was buffeted by "in-law" trouble when Bob returned from military service, will be heard over WCOP from 5 to 5:30 p.m. The series is sponsored locally in cooperation with the Family Service Bureau of Newton, a Red Feather Service of the Newton Community Chest.

Country Market To Feature Meeting

A County Market for the benefit of the Washington Building Fund will be a feature of the opening meeting of the Lucy Jackson Chapter, D.A.R., Oct. 10, at 11 a.m. in the Chapter House, Newton Lower Falls.

The regent, Mrs. Patterson, will preside at the business meeting at 2 p.m. and Rev. Wolcott Cutler will give an illustrated talk on "Historic Charlestown."

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE GAINING MOMENTUM

Mrs. Edward Godfrey Huber, Newton residential chairman for the 1949-1950 Salvation Army's Greater Boston appeal for funds, stated that reports from team captains indicate a day-by-day increase in calls by volunteer workers and, consequently, the total number of contributions being received shows a marked improvement over the previous week.

"The campaign is really getting into high speed now," said Mrs. Huber, obviously gratified by the encouraging reports. "Our start was materially slowed up by the fact that so many of our women workers were unable to canvass as much as they wished, because of getting their children ready for school."

"But now schools are well under way, and our organization of over eight hundred volunteers is swinging into action. And all of them are just as eager as the captains and chairmen to make this drive a huge success. That's why I feel sure our next report will show we are far along the road to our $20,000 quota."

At a recent meeting, Dwight Colburn, Newton's general chairman for the drive, again stressed the fact that twenty per cent of the amount contributed by Newton people will be used directly for needy Newton families. That percentage of our total local contributions," said Mr. Colburn, "will be spent by a special committee of prominent Newton citizens for necessities vital to impoverished families living in our community, regardless of race, creed or color. Partly because of these direct local benefits, Newton residents appear to be more than ready to back up the Salvation Army in helping it continue its worthy work. They know, too, that the Army takes hold where other organizations leave off. In other words, the Salvation Army gathers under its wing cases that might otherwise have rowdied to turn when they need help desperately. Therefore, the greater the total contributions, the more dollars in that twenty per cent portion which will be reserved for local use, and the more good our local committee can do. Understanding that, I am sure all of us, here in Newton, will do our best to help that committee and the Salvation Army in their efforts to ease suffering wherever it exists."

Bloodmobile Here Oct. 17

The Red Cross Bloodmobile is coming to town October 17 and 18 at the Newton Chapter House, 21 Foster Street, Newtonville. Mrs. Hannah Levensohn, Director of Newton's part in this big National Blood Program, will make a convenient appointment for you to donate blood when you dial LA 7-6000.

Davis School P.T.A. Holds Fall Meeting

Davis School P.T.A. held its first meeting of the fall on Monday, Oct. 3 in the School Auditorium, West Newton at 8 p.m. Dr. Allen Sherman conducted the meeting and after greeting the many parents and guests, he introduced the new officers for 1949-50. Mrs. Allen Stone, first vice-president; Mrs. James Remley, second vice-president; Mrs. George Koller, third vice-president; Mrs. Guv King, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Arthur Senecal, recording secretary; Mr. George Wurster, treasurer.

Committee heads appointed are: Mr. George Koller, Legislative; Mrs. Ralph Chisholm, Adult Education; Mr. Allen Stone, Building and grounds; Mrs. C. David Gordon, Public Relations; Mrs. Aster Anderson, Hospitality Rooms Mothers; Mrs. Henry Nigro; Delegates to the Newton P.T.A. Council, Henry Donovan and Allen Stone.

Reports were given by the chairmen of various committees and Halloween Party plans were presented by Mr. Alfred Henback. Dr. Sherman spoke on the P.T.A. organization's plan to improve the playground and recreational facilities.

Mr. Francis Tanner, the principal of the Davis School, greeted the audience and introduced the teachers of the school.

Mr. James Remley, program chairman introduced Mr. Harold Gores, new superintendent of schools, who spoke on the modern and old schools. He said that Newton was giving the best to its children, but that success depends on the co-operation of the parents.

Dr. Elwood Drake, assistant principal of the Newton High and head of Newton Junior College spoke on the subject "What are some of the Marks of a good Elementary School?"

Attractive and well-staffed buildings and more men teachers in the elementary system are a must. Parents can contribute to the educational process by training their children at home in courtesy, religious values and health. The atmosphere of the school should be friendly, informal and orderly in order to make a child enjoy his school experiences. The community should encourage growth, change and experimentation of its school and in return the school will teach the child to be a good citizen thru reading, arithmetic and history of town, nation and state.

A social hour followed and refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Aster Anderson and Mrs. Fred Kennedy.

Newonville Woman's Club Holds Meeting

The first meeting of the season of the Newtonville Woman's Club held Tuesday afternoon was well attended. A coffee hour at 1:30 preceded the meeting.

TWO YOUNG CELLISTS TO GET SCHOLARSHIPS

On the evening of November 25, at their annual fund raising concert, the Newton Chamber Music Society will award two music scholarships to a pair of young Newton cellists. These scholarships are created to encourage the study of string instruments, particularly the cello.

Elizabeth Lee, daughter of Newton's state Senator and Mrs. Richard H. Lee who has been studying at the All Newton Music School for four years, won the full scholarship. Krikor der Hohnnesian, twelve year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Garabed der Hohnnesian, was awarded the half scholarship. Both recipients will pursue their musical training at the All Newton Music School.

The Board of judges were: Mr. James H. Remley, Supervisor of Music of Newton Schools; Mrs. Mark F. Lesse, chairman; Miss Mary A. Clarke; Mr. Josef Imbler, cellist with the Boston Symphony Orchestra; Mr. Donald March, head of Instrumental Music of Newton Schools; and Mr. Emil Kornsand, violist with the Boston Symphony Orchestra. The audition consists of a preliminary musical aptitude test, followed by individual playing. The contest was open to all deserving students in the Newton Public Schools.

The Newton Chamber Music Society also sponsors a series of chamber music concerts for the high school students, performed by the Zimble Quartet. The funds for the musical events and the scholarships are raised by the annual concert performed by the Imbler String Sinfonietta, all members of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Outstanding soloists assist and this year the soloist will be the world famous harpist, Marcel Grandjany. The Newton Chamber Music Society has sponsored these fund raising concerts since 1947.

SOCIALISM?

Brother You Don't Know

the half of it!

Let's put away all the ten-dollar words and call a spade a spade. Socialism—in plain English—is nothing more nor less than political management of the lives—the total lives—of people.

Somewhere back in history—around 1776—it seems we polished up some muskets, rammed 'em with gunpowder, and stopped the first attempt to manage our lives. And again in 1917. And again in 1941.

What manner of people are we who will fight at the drop of a hat to prevent control from the outside—and submit blindly to conquest of our lives from within?

Step by step—inch by inch—the starry-eyed dreamers and planners in our midst go on and on—plotting and planning more control of our Business machine—without which this nation would swiftly lose its power and its greatness.

Step by step—the burden of taxes grows heavier—stifling Business growth and progress—undermining our capacity to create jobs.

More and more, restriction follows restriction. More and more, political management of our lives—our total lives—makes a farce of democracy—the last genuine democracy on earth.

That—Mr. & Mrs. U. S. Citizen—by whatever name you choose to call it—is Socialism in the making!

That is the same bag of political tricks that has finally made the courageous, fighting people of England victims of a busted economy. Victims—finally—of political management of Business.

Under political management last year in England, Civil Aviation lost a hundred million dollars, Coal lost a hundred and eight million dollars, Railroads lost an estimated hundred million dollars.

And who pays the bill? The people, of course—in taxes that kill all initiative—all desire even to work for more than the bare necessities of life.

A 40 dollar a week worker in England works twelve weeks out of the year to pay his taxes.

Austerity—they call it. The other word for it is starvation.

And what is the prospect of relief? None—as long as Business remains under control of politicians who know nothing of Business operation and management.

This is Socialism in England—in action! This is political management in action! Management that has driven prices up and the standards of living down, turned profits into losses, lowered production, reduced the quality of goods and services. Management that will finally run the total lives of people at a loss—a loss of pride, of dignity, of freedom, of all that we hold sacred.

In England—it may be too late. For once a nation gives up its freedom—submits to those who seek power for power's sake—there is small chance of escape.

In this country—where your freedom is at stake—it is later than you think, and the decision is yours. Before you decide that you will allow U. S. Business—your Business to be politically managed—your life—your total life—stripped of the freedoms you have known—it will profit you well to watch out for this thing called Socialism—because brother—you don't know the half of it. Riley Hampton Heads Publicity Committee

Riley Hampton has been appointed chairman of the publicity committee for the 1950 Red Feather campaign in Newton, according to an announcement made this week by Harold T. Pillsbury, Newton campaign chairman. Hampton was the 1949 general campaign chairman not only for the Red Feather campaign but also for the Newton-Wellesley Hospital Building Fund drive, held this spring.

Mr. Hampton was responsible for the publicity policy in both of these campaigns, and because of his unusual ability along these lines Mr. Pillsbury induced him to handle the publicity work this year.

The first publicity piece of the campaign in Newton this year is entitled "IF" A four-page attractive circular asks: "If the Red Feather Campaign were canceled and the agencies should have to run their own campaigns or the Government should take them over and they had to be paid for through taxation, would the general public like it?" The answer is conclusively No. Included in this piece is a complete list of Newton's agencies, a description of their work, and the Budget Committee's recommended allotment for 1950.

The object of the publicity committee is to pave the way so that the Newton campaign will be successful in reaching its goal of $296,825.

Salvation Army Drive Reaches Halfway Mark In Campaign

Dwight Colburn, General Chairman for Newton of the Salvation Army's Greater Boston appeal for funds, states that local contributions have now reached approximately the half way mark towards Newton's quota of $20,000.

"It has taken a great deal of hard effort on the part of our nearly one thousand volunteer workers," said Mr. Colburn, "to get even to this point in the campaign. And it is clear that the most earnest and energetic solicitation will be necessary to put us over the top—where Newton certainly should be. I am sure our community will make the grade, as it repeatedly has. But it takes time to call on every home in the city. That is why I urge residents who have so far not been visited to send in their contributions by mail. All have received letters regarding the drive—and a prompt response will not only be gratifying but will also be an important factor in reaching our goal well before the closing date."

In connection with the Salvation Army's appeal for funds to carry on its essential welfare activities, it is interesting to note an article by former President Herbert Hoover, which appeared in "This Week Magazine," issued by the Boston Herald on Sunday, October 9th. In it, Mr. Hoover summarizes his concept of giving by saying that we cannot retire from the voluntary support of private welfare agencies if we wish our American civilization to survive.

"The greatest and, in fact the only impulse to social progress," Mr. Hoover declared, "is the spark of altruism in the individual human being. But the greatest of these is charity' has been a religious precept from which no civilized people can depart without losing its soul. . . . We need charity in its real sense—from the heart. . . . The outstanding spiritual distinction of our civilization from all others is communism."

Don't Gamble with your Family's Safety

A legal flaw in your arrangements for your family's welfare after your passing may result in heavy loss for those whom you want to protect.

Such a defect may exist without your knowing it; a result, for instance, of new laws enacted since your will was made.

Don't take that chance with your family's future. The smaller your estate, the less able will they be to endure necessary losses resulting from legal technicalities you never heard of.

Make sure your beneficiaries will be legally safe. Your lawyer's fee for that assurance will be a highly profitable investment in family protection. See him without delay.

He said that jewels have played a part from earliest history to the present time. Fortunes in kings and rulers. The ruby is the diamond third, the diamond most precious, emerald next, and being the most important, and its production is controlled. Until 1776 they were found only in India and Brazil, then in 1869 in So. Africa. The first diamond to come from So. Africa is still one of the most important diamonds in the world, it is "Star of So. Africa".

Holland and Portugal are the principal diamond cutters. The first diamonds were found on the earth's surface, now they are mined at a depth of 1/2 mile.

The value of the jewel is determined by its color. Pearls are the only jewels used in the natural state.

Mr. Davidson's talk was supplemented by a display of jewelry.

wards, Inc., and Frank A. East, pharmacist.

The magazine made a local investigation and found that his unselfish and unusual community activities included the following: Chairman of Newton's Community Chest and the American Heart Association's campaign; director of Newton's Chamber of Commerce and past president, Newton's Business Men's Association; charter member, Kiwanis Club; active in youth work; member, Board of Home for Crippled Children, Mr. McPherrin said.

In making the announcement, Mr. McPherrin said, "There is only one reason why we make these awards, and that is to promote more activity in community affairs by business and professional people. Our citation does not state the recipient is 'the most outstanding' because we do not believe it humanly possible to make such a selection. However, we know that each druggist selected for the award is one of the most outstanding leaders among the druggists of the nation."

"Although our rules restrict this citation to druggists we recognize that every profession or business includes many public spirited citizens. The only difference is that the public service of a retail pharmacist gives him many opportunities to work unselfishly for the good of his community. Therefore, we are happy to hear of druggists whose civic activities are as outstanding as those of Mr. Chagnon of Newton."

"At its roots, America is sound and good, and its roots are deep in the wholesome local communities of the 48 states. As long as we have such communities, we need not worry about democracy in America. We are glad that our citation has helped many communities recognize and reward what one man has done. It seems to stimulate more civic activity among all citizens."

Junior Auxiliary, St. Mary's Church

The members of the Junior Auxiliary of St. Mary's Church were most fortunate in hearing the Rev. William Wittenburg, Chaplain of the Framingham Reformatory, speak at the home of Mrs. Frederick Conant, 21 Saunter's terrace, Wellesley Hills, last Wednesday evening. The Christian Philosophy of Correction was his topic. He believes that religion is the most powerful answer to the whole problem of correction because Christians believe in the possibility of change. No matter how bad a person may seem there is always the possibility that he may be helped to improve.

Punishment, he believes, should not be an end in itself and is no good unless used in terms of eventual rehabilitation. The ultimate goal of penology should be education on an intellectual, spiritual and social level.

He praised Dr. Van Waters for her work at Framingham and said that penologists have come from all over the world to study her methods.

Recipes Almost Numberless, Here Are Seven Suggestions

By DOROTHY JAMES

One of our readers wrote in the other day to ask how many different ways there are of cooking and serving bananas. We would not attempt to answer the question accurately but we have on file close to one hundred different recipes centering around the tasty and nutritious banana.

A few of the more popular recipes are for baked bananas, banana scallops, glazed bananas, banana meat loaf, banana bread; banana muffins, shortcake, nut cake, doughnuts, ice cream, sherbet and banana milk shake.

We won't try to go on with the list but perhaps you might like some of our favorite banana recipes, one of which is banana fritters.

Banana Fritters

Melted fat or oil
3 to 4 firm bananas
1/4 cup flour
Fritter batter
(Use yellow bananas).

For deep-fat frying, have deep kettle 1/2 to 2/3 full of melted fat or oil.

For shallow frying, have one inch of melted fat or oil in frying pan.

Heat fat to 375 or until one inch cube of bread will brown in about 40 seconds. Peel bananas and cut each into 3 or 4 pieces. Roll in flour. Dip into fritter batter, completely coating the banana pieces with batter.

Deep-fat fry or shallow fry in the hot fat four to six minutes, turning fritters frequently to brown evenly. Drain on a rack. Six to eight servings.

Serve very hot with the main course or as a dessert with a hot fruit sauce or sweetened whipped cream.

Batter for Fritters

1 cup sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 1/4 teaspoons salt
1/4 cup sugar
1 egg well beaten
1/2 cup milk
2 teaspoons melted shortening

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Combine egg, milk and shortening. Add to dry ingredients and mix until batter is smooth.

(This is a stiff batter and it makes a crisp fritter which will stay crisp for 15 to 20 minutes. This batter should not be "thinned down.")

If you have never tried cooking bananas you have a rare treat in store for you. Bananas may be baked in a number of different ways. For example, with molasses, brown sugar, cranberries or orange juice.

Baker Bananas

6 firm bananas
Salt
2 tablespoons melted butter (use all-yellow or slightly green-tipped fruit).

Peel bananas. Place in well buttered pan. Brush well with butter and sprinkle with salt. Bake in 375 oven for 15 to 18 minutes, or until bananas are tender... easily pierced with a fork. If desired, bake until almost done; then place under broiler heat until tender and browned. Six servings. Serve hot as a vegetable or as a dessert with cream or hot fruit juice.

Baked Bananas With Molasses

Just before baking, brush bananas with lemon juice. Pour 1/4 to one cup of molasses over bananas. Bake as above. Serve hot as a sweet entree with beef or ham, or garnish with chopped toasted almonds and serve as a hot dessert.

Bananas Baked With Brown Sugar

Just before baking, sprinkle bananas lightly with brown sugar. Bake as above. Serve hot as a sweet entree with beef, ham, lamb or chicken.

Bananas Baked With Cranberries

Just before baking, pour one cup of hot cranberry sauce over bananas. Bake as above. Serve hot with beef, chicken or turkey.

Bananas Baked With Orange Sauce

Just before baking, pour one cup of hot orange sauce over bananas. Bake as above. Serve hot as a sweet entree with duck or ham, or as a hot dessert.

Miss Gene O'Neil and Miss Harriet Weiner have resumed their professional training in Physical education at Bouve Boston School of Physical Education which is affiliated with Tufts College. Miss O'Neil, a senior, is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Eugene E. Newton voters will elect a Mayor, Twenty-one Aldermen—2 from each ward to be elected at large; 1 to be elected by voters of each ward. Seven School Committeemen (1 from each Ward to be elected at large).

* Starred names indicate candidate running for reelection.

Preferential Voting

Newton uses a preferential voting system which allows the voter to indicate first and second choices, and also to write in names.

The candidate receiving a majority (more than half of votes cast) of first choices is elected. However, if no candidate receives a majority, the second and first choices of each candidate are added together and the candidate with the highest number is elected.

1. Education: Newton Schools;

Mellor's Commercial School, Waltham; Alexander Hamilton Institute's Business Course; Newton YMCA's Public Speaking

Course. City of Newton Governmental Experience: Former

Assistant-Assessor; Former Alderman-at-Large, serving on the following committees: Claims and Rules, Legislation, Traffic,

Franchises and Licenses, Cris-

tal Lake Improvements and Mayor's Address.

2. No. But I need time for further study before I can make a statement.

3. No. Properly zoned multiple housing units can be an asset.

Hundreds of our best citizens,

young and old, have been forced to reside elsewhere because of lack of housing facilities in Newton.

4. Yes. Newton's present tax rate is more than sufficient. However, if assessed valuations are increased much more, the limit of such assessments will be reached. The next step will be a substantial jump in the tax rate.

5. No. However, it is doubtful if this tax is equitably levied anywhere.

6. Newton's recreational facilities can be improved by the building of numerous neighborhood play-yards for younger children. In addition, Newton's entire recreational program can be immensely invigorated by the formation of a Parents, Instructors Association.

7. Yes. The efficiency of our city government can be increased by the installation of a purchasing department. Two planks of my platform recommend this.

They are, as published in the

Newton papers on August 13,

1949.

3. The installation of a non-political, non-partisan Purchasing Department. It will purchase

all equipment, supplies, insurance policies, and, in fact, everything to be bought by our city government. If possible, legally, it should handle all the purchases made for the School Department.

Controlled quantity buying would mean big savings for our tax-payors. 4. The inclusion of an iron-clad rule in the set-up of the Purchasing Department that preference must be given to Newton businesses and Newton citizens, providing of course, that other considerations such as quality and price are relatively equal.

1. Having successfully operated my own business in the City of Newton for over 40 years—a business which has been essentially one of public service—I am qualified to apply sound business principles to the administration of the City in cooperation with the Board of Aldermen and Departments of the City.

For the last 21 years I have held city contracts, the accomplishment of which necessitated daily contact with the City Hall. This contact has given me a clear insight on the administration of the affairs of our city, through constant association with city

officials, departmental personnel and former mayors.

2. I am not satisfied with the school building program. The School Board deserves commendation in itself, but the City has not made it possible for it to keep abreast of the increase in population in recent years, as a result of which the program lags seriously behind the present demands; in particular as regards the veterans population.

3. Multiple housing is emergency housing. While there is at present an acute housing

emergency, it must be borne in mind that Newton is the Garden

City—a residential community—and its citizens wish it to remain so.

4. Yes, provided the city is governed efficiently and its operation is carried out on a realistic basis.

5. Not entirely. In many respects the personal property tax is levied or assessed arbitrarily.

6. A step at a time. By putting into operation those facilities which already exist, and by developing city owned land at relatively low cost.

7. Indeed, yes!

You are asked to bear in mind that the above answers do not constitute my platform in its entirety. My organization is engaged in preparing my platform

with due thought consideration and investigation, and I intend to put my platform on record at a later date. However, I authorize the publication of the above answers because of my obligation to you.

that progress has been constant,

3. As problem is being expressively studied by technical group under Professor Adams of

4. Newton's tax rate is sufficient to provide quality of public service. Per capita and per

Training the Young Hunter

During the past week I have received a number of calls from parents of youngsters who participated in the National Better Fishing Rodeo this year.

They said that most of the boys never did any fishing prior to the Rodeo and they thought it had really done something to get the youngsters interested in this healthy outdoor recreation.

One local sportsman called and asked if some sort of get-together could be arranged so that the same group could be trained to shoot and handle guns safely.

I have just received a notice from the Wildlife Management Institute which is timely and contains a good suggestion in line with the training of young hunters.

With the approach of fall, sportsmen are beginning to oil up shotguns and rifles, to harden up dogs, and to touch up decoys. Many, however, are overlooking an important point which will have much bearing upon the success or failure of trips now being planned.

Among these are hunters with young sons who have just reached the age when they will accom-pany their dads on trips afield and who will be disappointed if they are not given the opportunity to take their chances with dogs or blocks.

Whether an embryonic hunter becomes a true sportsman or a dub depends largely upon parental guidance and training before, as well as during, the hunting season.

Too many fathers wait until the season opens before acquainting their sons with shooting safety rules, field etiquette, and the general behavior which sets the sportsman apart from the pot hunter.

Some hand their sons shotguns the day before the season opens and expect them to use them safely after a few minutes of instructions on how to load and work the action.

The usual excuse is that time will not permit a greater attention to essential details of training and marksmanship; but handing a boy a lethal weapon without such training is inviting disaster.

"The Making of a Shooter," a full color film prepared specifically for training boys and girls in proper conduct afield is undoubtedly the best short cut available to such busy parents.

Prepared by experts, it gives information on all phases of gun handling and sportsmanship in a manner which has great entertainment value as well as educational benefits.

After the youngsters see this picture, the task of the parent is a simple one. Add a few odd hours of day firing, a pleasant weekend or two with the hand-trap or at the skeet field and his son is ready for the real thing.

If you have a moving picture projector in your home or at your club, church, or school, you can procure this film in both sound and silent versions without charge except for transportation costs. Write to the Sporting Arms and Ammunition Manufacturers Institute, 343 Lexington Ave., New York 16, N.Y.

It is up to all of us to help our youngsters be the safe and sane hunters of tomorrow.

Coats in Hiding
Many of our local waterfowl hunters swung into action recently with the opening of the cool season in the outer harbor areas.

Coot have been very plentiful off shore for some time and it was expected that the toll would be heavy on the opening day. However, results were the reverse, and most of the local boys I met during the day were getting very few shots.

We spent a great part of the afternoon and early evening along the shore from Hingham to Duxbury and found very few of the species taken. Some of the local boys expect better shooting after some heavy rain and gales for comparison elsewhere. Quality, efficiency, economies steadily improving. Tax rate should not be advanced.

5. As equitably and more so than is general throughout the State Newton's full-time Assessors are able, efficient, fair. Problem is one of State legislation.

6. When financially able, Newton should provide indoor swimming, ice hockey, athletics, more outdoor swimming facilities. Progress has been made in eliminating sources of pollution in swimming locations.

CURRENT COMMENTS

As Governor Dever comes back across the Atlantic from his vacation in Europe to resume the direction of the State government, a number of major decisions await him and the most pressing of them is still the MTA.

That money-losing transportation system, owned by the people of 14 Massachusetts cities and towns, offers a critical problem that promises to provide many a headache before it is solved.

Mr. Dever made one energetic and determined drive to unscramble the road's complicated financial difficulties, and it now appears that he is going to have to start all over again.

The MTA has been relieved of local taxes. The cities and towns it serves are going to pay its snow-removal bills. Its outstanding bonds on tunnels and subways have been spread out over a longer period of years to cut down the annual interest and debt retirement charge.

Its fares have been increased, and still it is losing money at a rate of almost $500,000 a month.

Those losses may be cut to some extent during the winter months when a greater number of people leave their automobiles at home and ride on the MTA, but next summer they'll go up again.

In addition, the men who run the street cars, the buses and the subway and elevated trains are seeking a raise in pay and increased pension privileges. They have to live and support their families whether the road makes money or loses it, and even a part of their demands are met it will mean a very substantial added item of expense.

What can be done to place the MTA on a self-supporting basis is likely to offer a baffling problem both for Governor Dever and the men who are in direct control of the road and responsible for its operation.

The law says the fares must be boosted until the MTA pays its own way. The trustees of the road are given no discretion. If the system is losing money, they're supposed to increase the fares to whatever height is necessary to take it out of the red. That was why the Bradford Trustees found themselves confronted with the necessity of raising fares in the midst of the 1948 gubernatorial campaign.

Governor Dever, of course, would make another prolonged fight and go to some lengths to prevent a further increase in fares. But even if one were put into effect there is no assurance that it would provide the money needed to lift the MTA out of the red, for as fares go up patronage goes down, and what the road would make on the one hand it might lose on the other.

One of the reasons the higher fare schedule has not produced as much added revenue as was expected is the local five-cent fare. For every person who takes a nickel ride on a street car or bus, another passenger must pay 15 cents for a longer trip before the road starts to break even.

The effect of that five-cent fare is shown particularly in the figures for Saturdays and Sundays when a good part of the riding is done in home communities, and the passengers now pay only a nickel where formerly they deposited a dime.

Mr. Dever is going to try to wipe out the taxes on cigars, cigarettes and tobacco. He never sponsored or favored

Series of Student Concerts Started

The beginning of the school year has ushered in the series of student concerts at Newton High School sponsored by the Newton Chamber Music Society. Wednesday morning, September 26th, the incoming sophomore Quartet in a program of 18th century music by Josef Hayden and Carl Dittersdorf. Mr. Raymond Green, principal of Newton High School, greeted the audience and Daniel Abbot, a student, acted as commentator.

Mrs. Mark F. Lesses, chairman of the Newton Chamber Music Society, has issued an invitation to the interested public for the three subsequent concerts to be held on January 25, March 8, and April 5 at 8:45 a. m. in the high school auditorium.

It is expected that this season there will be active participation by talented high school students who will be invited to play with the quartet. Preparations are being made by Mr. James H. Remley, Supervisor of Music of Newton Schools, his faculty and Mr. Josef Zimble, to present a Mozart Clarinet Quintet with a student clarinetist, a Beethoven Piano Trio with a student pianist, and a choral work which will be performed with the school choral group.

The dead man was John King who occupied a bed bearing Cain's name. Private Cain had been transferred, but his name had been left on his bed, the army explained. . . . Red ants of a species common in the west usually mean pain and sometimes even death to persons whom they bite. But it's the other way around with two-year-old Delores Baca of Clovis. The ants die when they bite her. Doctors say the ants are allergic to her skin. Dozens of witnesses have vouched for little Delores' hex over the venomous ants. An ant that remains on her skin for any length of time falls to the ground dead. Ants that crawled over her bare foot for only a moment ran dizzily in circles but survived.

Friendly Thoughts

Friendly eyes of a tired old face in a crowd hurrying by. I shall never forget those friendly old eyes . . . so merry . . . so twinkled in a face of pain. They made a better man of me. Friendly eyes so often do worlds of good.

There is much to be done on the occasion arises but we trouble no member of the family with the details. Our knowledge and equipment is at your disposal.

Supports Janse

I have received numerous inquiries as to my views with regard to the coming Mayoralty election to be held in Newton on November 8, 1949. As a candidate for public office myself it is only natural that I should have some definite ideas about the candidates who are seeking election to this office.

It is true that some schools of thought maintain that it is politically unwise for a person who is himself a candidate for office to maintain anything but an air of apathy toward other campaigns in the same district which are being waged at the same time.

This may be a wise approach to the situation, but I must confess that to me it reflects a lack of independence and courage. Personally I intend to exercise the same independent viewpoint in voting for Mayor that I will exercise when I vote on city matters as a member of the Board of Aldermen after January 1, 1950.

I will never attempt to hide the latter from the people Ward 4, and I do not now intend to hide my attitude toward the former. For that reason I now take this opportunity to advise publicly that I am endorsing the candidacy of John A. Janse for Mayor of Newton.

Soup's On With a Soupcon!

THAT EXTRA BIT OF GARNISH, whether it be a slice of lemon, hardboiled egg, or a pinch of fine herbs, added to a bowl of soup, gives that "touch of genius" to a simple, but beloved food. "Soup's on"—the call to eat hearty—means that small fry and adults can eat the same fare and have party trimmings. Animal shaped bowls for juvenile pleasure, the finest china in the house to please the grown-ups and the informal serve-yourself table setting is good summer or winter. The silver pattern shown is Coronation.

Brighten That Corner

My "problem child" is a living room which is too small to hold much furniture. It has very low ceilings. It is in a northeast corner so it is rather dark. I have an upright piano which must stay. There is a large radiator which takes up a corner. There are large double doors which open into a hall. Should I paper the hall to match the living room? What color living room rug should I use and what color runner for the stairway? Some chair suggestions would be a help.

Mrs. L. J. R. We suggest that you use a wallpaper with a neutral background, such as gray. Colorful floral designs of yellow here and there on the paper will give it the splash needed. Use yellow drapes. This will give both light and warmth to the room. If your woodwork is white try painting your piano to match. We did and our white elephant suddenly made a hit. Gray broadloom would be excellent for stair carpeting and living room rug. Paint the radiator to match the woodwork. A ladderback chair with tapestry covering takes up little space and lends atmosphere. A love-seat in a pretty green damask should do the trick.

Exploding The False Notions About Cancer

The false, foolish and dangerous notions about cancer—ideas held by otherwise sensible people—would probably fill as many books as would the known, proven facts about the disease.

Many Americans will believe anything told them about "cancer." In part, this is born out of a fear in which they snatch at any straw. But another and much larger aspect of this unquestioning belief stems only from old wives' tales, "traditional" remedies, and outright quack advice.

The danger in these false ideas is the waste of time—and time, in treating cancer, often means life itself. By the time a victim of cancer discovers that his pet "remedy" is useless, the disease may have progressed to a stage beyond repair.

When cancer is discovered early, in many cases it is possible to cure it by three—and only three—methods. These are surgery, x-ray and radium. For years, the American Cancer Society has been hammering away at this one great fact—that THERE ARE NO OTHER WAYS TO CURE CANCER.

And yet, people still have to be told patiently that—

Cancer cannot be cured with special salves and ointments; a diet of fruit will not cure it; there is no old Indian remedy that "draws the cancer out" when rubbed on the skin; eating raw potatoes will not cure it; eating potatoes will not cure it; faith-healing won't do the trick; sea water from North Wales is of no help; there is no remarkable "scientific belt" that will end it once and for all.

One of the most dangerous of false notions is held by people who are too smart to believe in quack remedies—but who are confident that their symptoms can mean nothing because there is no pain. The truth is that pain is frequently a late arrival in cancer, and when it does show up it may be too late. Symptoms (to be discussed in another article) should be called to a doctor's attention at once, whether or not pain is present.

The cause of cancer is another field for myths about the disease; while scientists frankly confess that they have yet to find the complete answer as to what causes cancer, some people will give you glib and entirely false answers. These people still have to be told patiently that—

Cancer is not caused by a single severe injury; you don't get cancer just because your parent had it; cancer is not contagious—you can't "catch it" like a cold; it is never caused by aluminum cooking utensils, and electric refrigeration has nothing to do with it; no foods or combinations of foods can cause it; and drinking has nothing to do with cancer.

Now, in addition to establishing these sound methods of treating cancer, doctors have learned a good deal about things that seem to make it easier for cancer to start, although they haven't yet cracked its real secret. They know that cancer never develops in healthy tissue; it follows, then, that any condition that tends to break down normal tissue and normal cells may be paving the way for cancer.

For example, irregular eating habits don't cause cancer, but may result in an unhealthy digestive system that can give rise to cancer.

Continual or chronic irritation can do it. For instance, continued over-exposure to the hot sun may cause cancer of the skin, and constant rubbing of a mole or old scar may bring on growth of malignant (cancerous) tissue.

Finally, doctors know that certain individuals are more prone to cancer than others. But as yet, they don't know why.

Best Year in Tourist Travel In New England

Biggest and best years in the history of tourist travel in New England brought prosperity to big and small businessmen from Maine to Massachusetts, according to the Boston Automobile Club, affiliate of the American Automobile Association.

More cars and more tourists visited New England than ever before in history, the Auto Club reported, in a motor travel boom which broke all existing records.

AAA motor clubs throughout the country recorded increases ranging from 12 to 70 per cent in vacation routings to New England, and the number of visitors during July to the three N. E. tourist objectives—Acadia National Park, White Mountain National Forest and the Green Mountains National Forest—increased five times over July of last year.

Major development on the N. E. travel scene this year was the phenomenal rise of the motor court as a competitor with the conventional resort hotel for the tourist dollar.

Field reporters of the AAA noted this important change in traveling habits during the vacation season just ended—more and more tourists "motored to the motor courts" instead of "resorting to the resort hotels".

Laboratory School Set Up By Churches

A new departure in Religious Education Training was commenced by the Newton Council of Churches "Laboratory School" set up in the primary department of the First Baptist Church last Sunday morning. Mrs. Harriet Cousins, of the First Baptist Church, is the instructor of the course which has enrolled ten teachers from Newton churches and one from Wellesley. the direction of the Instructor. Each Monday evening there is an evaluation session at which time comments made, questions asked, methods discussed, and plans made for the next Sunday session. This method of teaching training has been used for over a generation by the public schools, but has only recently been tried by the churches, one difficulty being the shortage of leaders which can be spared from their own local churches on Sunday morning.

This school is a trial balloon. If it succeeds and makes a contribution to the leadership training of the member churches, then other schools in other departments and other localities in Newton will be set up and conducted at mid-term in 1950. The success of the school greatly depends upon the ability of the instructor to be a good teacher both of the children in her school and the teachers who are under her guidance.

The school is the first of its kind in the United States and initial enrollment was limited to fifty students all over the country.

Real Need Exists For Junior College

"The fact that 86 per cent of our entering freshmen are enrolled in terminal two-year courses emphasizes a very real need that Newton Junior College is prepared to meet," says Raymond A. Green, Principal, Newton Junior College, in releasing data about the freshman class. "The Newton Public Schools fill this need for 16 neighboring communities as well, with 47 per cent of the freshman class coming from outside Newton."

The most popular courses of study for the entering class of 66 freshmen are those offered in business and the trades (29), with the general education courses a close second (26). Nine students are enrolled in the college transfer programs. Two are registered for part-time courses of study.

Thirty-five of the freshmen (53 per cent of the class) are from the various Newtons, with Brookline second (10), Wellesley and Wellesley Hills tied for third with three each, and Brighton and Roxbury contributing two apiece. The most distant community represented in the freshman class is Rockport, Mass.

Newtonville is the best represented of the Newtons with nine and Newton and West Newton tied with eight each. Five students are enrolled from Newton Centre, four from Auburndale, and one from Newton Highlands.

Resolution Praises Joseph W. Bartlett

In offering the resolution on Joseph W. Bartlett at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen Monday night, Alderman John C. Beale stated:

Mr. President: This is a belated acknowledgment of the public service of a man who has given the best years of his life to the City of Newton. As the resolution says, "he has set us an inspiring example." The citizens of Newton are fortunate that Mr. Bartlett's spirit of devoted service is reflected today in their City Government—from the top right down the line. I am sure Joe Bartlett will understand our good intentions and will be glad to here, even thus tardily, from his old associates. Therefore, I move the adoption of the resolution.

Careless Driving Tactics Discussed

Great impetus was given to the nation-wide attack on careless and unskilled automobile driving by the first National Conference on High-School Driver Education in three-day session at Jackson's Mill, West Virginia, this week, according to Principal Raymond A. Green of The Newton High School, who attended the meeting as the official representative of the National Association of Secondary School Principals. Driver education is now a part of the instruction in 4,585 of the nation's 20,000 high schools. More than 400,000 students are enrolled in driver education in 47 states and the District of Columbia. The number of schools offering behind-the-wheel instruction ranges from 15 in Maine to 600 in Illinois. A total of 3,184 training cars are in use throughout the country.

The Jackson's Mill Conference outlined the curriculum and the methods of administration and instruction that have developed from the experience of schools already engaged in driver education. Getting down to fundamentals, the 140 members of the Conference, representing 45 states, planned to teach sound practices in urban, rural and open highway driving. Training will include driving at night, driving through fog and smoke, driving in wet weather, and on icy pavements where instruction is offered when this condition exists. Towing, pushing, getting out of a skid, and driving through soft sand are among the skills in which training will be given in the expanded program recommended by the Jackson's Mill Conference.

The program of driver education will include classroom learning as well as behind-the-wheel instruction. Information on accident facts, courtesy of the road, and the responsibilities of citizens for the safe and efficient development of the nation's passenger and freight transportation are objects of these courses.

The educators, representing state departments of education, city and county school systems, colleges and universities, were joined in their discussions by professional civic and industrial and other organizations interested in the attack upon mounting traffic accident tolls of more than 30,000 fatalities and a property damage of $2,800,000,000 annually.

Perfect Background for a Lady!

Sometimes, we think a lady never looks so lovely as when she is seated at the wheel of a Cadillac car.

First of all—she looks serene . . . for she knows she is driving the world's most distinguished motor car—a car so regal in its bearing and so sumptuous in its appointments that it is the accepted standard for the whole automotive world.

She looks confident, too . . . for she knows she is driving a mechanical masterpiece—a car that is as dependable and safe as human ingenuity and craftsmanship can make it.

She looks rested and at ease . . . for there is no strain at all to her driving. The big motor moves the car as if by automatic propulsion—steering is virtually a response to her wish—and the brake pedal calls for little more than the weight of a foot.

And, finally, she looks—as we said—so lovely . . . for here is the perfect background for a lady. If she has chosen the model and the color and upholstery with care—as the fullest complement to her personality—she is the spot-lighted high-light in a gorgeous picture!

This message, of course, is addressed to a man—to a man with a lovely lady whom he delights to see at her best—and whom he wants surrounded, wherever she drives, with every safeguard an automobile can provide.

Come in, Sir—and see us. You are looking, as you surely know, for a Cadillac!

'Army' Drive Moves Towards Its Goal

The latest reports from fund headquarters indicate that Newton's response to the Salvation Army's appeal for contributions is progressing steadily towards our $20,000 quota.

"We should, however, be making better headway," said Dwight Colburn, General Chairman for Newton. "Last year we went over the top by a gratifying margin. And that is all the more reason why we should not fall behind this year."

"Any worthy charity deserves public support of course. That is why I feel there is no reason why the Community Chest, now making its annual appeal, and the Salvation Army, should not both succeed in reaching their respective quotas. For both are efficient, sound, ably-directed means of providing badly-needed assistance to innumerable people. Let me point out, however, that the Salvation Army, which has always sought support independently, takes over

DR. DAVID McKEITH, JR., of 92 Varick Road, Waban, installed Wednesday as Executive Vice-President of the American Board of Foreign Missions, Boston, Mass., at the 140th Annual Meeting of the American Board of Foreign Missions convening jointly with the Mid-West Regional Congregational Christian Churches in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Stresses General Approach to Science

"The Progress of Science," Dr. Albert E. Navez tells his Newton Junior College class in "Survey of Science," "is one per cent luck, three per cent inspiration, six per cent experimentation, and ninety per cent perspiration."

This new class stresses the general approach to science. Very little laboratory work is required of students. Instead of studying the various specific sciences, such as physics, chemistry, biology, or astronomy, the young men and women in Newton Junior College study scientific principles through their theoretical and practical applications.

Dr. Navez places emphasis on the long-term importance of the work to the student. "Our prime intention in 'Survey of Science,'" he says with great earnestness, "is to give you a broad, general approach to science."

Camp Patoma Buys Adjacent Property

Camp Patoma, the Day Camp for boys and girls, in Holliston has purchased the adjacent estate from Dr. Arthur L. Stoddard, whose summer home it has been since 1904.

This property consists of over eight acres with a seven room house on the shores of Lake Winthrop. Director Thomas W. Leydon says that the new property will be used largely to expand the facilities for the Girl's Division of the Day Camp and that it increases the total acreage to over thirty-two acres and adds two more buildings to the camp's former facilities.

The camp's present holdings now comprise all of Strawberry Hill, camping ground of an Indian tribe historically dating back to a grant made by Governor Winthrop to his son in the Middle Seventeenth Century, and the site of the first house built in Holliston.

Improvement Ass'n Discusses Problems

A meeting of the officers and directors of the Newton Improvement Association was held at the Hunnewell Club last Friday at 8 p. m.

The principal topics discussed included off-street parking areas, playgrounds, traffic, library, streets and zoning. Considerable discussion also developed on the arrangements for the meeting open to the public on November 21.

The authority was voted for the president to participate in a joint restudy of off-street parking areas as suggested at the hearing on September 26 by Mr. Gallagher for Nonantum Properties, Inc. and agreed to by Mr. Marble for the Newton Corner Business and Professional Associates. A letter will be sent to Mr. Bauchman, Chairman of the Board of Aldermen, restating the view of the Newton Improvement Association that several off-street parking areas should be provided as soon as possible. Mrs. William H. McAdams, Mrs. Morris H. Adler and Mr. H. William Kugler were appointed as a committee to represent the association on off-street parking problems.

Medical and Nursing Institute Is Held

Could Newton have a disaster? What might we expect? And how can we be fully prepared if and when Disaster Strikes—was the topic of Medical and Nursing Institute held at the Red Cross Chapter House Monday.

Mrs. Robert W. Moore, Jr., Chairman of Nursing Services, opened the meeting and introduced Miss Florence Ullrich, R.N., Nursing Field Representative, who explained the new nurse enrollment plan, whereby nurses may win the time-honored Red Cross badge by enrolling in any of the professional or volunteer services of the Red Cross. These serve "Beyond the Line of Duty."

Miss Mary Donnelly, Nursing Field Director, then conducted the group discussions on pre-disaster preparedness and the specific responsibilities of medical and nursing personnel. She stressed the necessity of providing arrangements in shelters for the chronically ill, term deliveries, and communicable diseases. The assistance given by nurses and nurse's aides to families in identifying the dead in morgues was also pointed out. Nurses recruited for Disaster Service may give voluntary service during the first twenty-four hour emergency period, after which they are paid at the prevailing local rate for their services. They also work under the supervision of a physician. Nurses attending the Conference worked out in groups plans for handling possible disasters which might strike in Newton. A total of 87 nurses, nurse's aides, first aiders and Red Cross personnel attended the morning, afternoon and evening sessions.

Miss Avis Walsh Attends Conference

Walsh, Consultant of English in the Newton Junior High Schools, was invited by the President, Board of Trustees, and Faculty of Wellesley College to attend a conference on "Constructive Forces in Education," on Oct. 16, 17, and 18. The subject of pollution of the Charles River long has been in deep study and discussion. Steps of relief have been developed effectively and great progress has been made. The State Board of Public Health reports improvements such as to alleviate former concern.

A new bill aimed at eliminating pollution of the Charles River is in the process of preparation. Mayor Lockwood announced today. The bill, which would provide for changes in control needed to bring about increased flow in the river, should be ready to submit to the legislature by the first of the year, the Mayor said.

For some time local authorities have been concerned over the fact that sustained use of Charles River water by Newton and Brookline has slowed the velocity of flow to the point where it was becoming a health hazard. Additional water to flush the river or increase its speed was not easily available since Lake Cochituate and the Sudbury Aqueduct had been transferred from the Metropolitan District to the Department of Conservation.

Decision to draft the new bill came at a recent conference held at the Metropolitan District Commission office in Boston Mayor Lockwood, Dr. Ernest M. Morris, Director of Public Health, Mr. Willard S. Pratt, Director of Public Works, and Mr. Alexander A. Robertson, member of the Board of Health, met to discuss the problem of Charles River pollution with Mr. William T. Morrissey, Metropolitan District Commissioner, Mr. Harold J. O'Toole, Engineer of Metropolitan District Commission, Mr. Arthur T. Lyman, Commissioner of Conservation, and Mr. Arthur D. Weston, Director of the Division of Sanitary Engineering.

In most cases timely action following discussion and study has resulted in improvements.

Formerly industrial contamination was the source of trouble. In recent months the Health Department has succeeded in reaching agreements with plants in

Fogg, Mrs. Walter Hurley, Mrs. John W. Locke, Mrs. Everett C. Marston, Mrs. Arnold P. G. Peterson, Mrs. Maurice B. Strauss, Mrs. Fredrick Sears, Jr., Mrs. Gilbert Supple, and Mrs. Albert N. Walker. 10,000 PUPILS LOOKING FORWARD TO HALLOWEEN

Throughout Newton, school children of all ages are looking forward to the happy doings scheduled for the coming two hundred and forty Halloween parties. And according to Mrs. Ragna Hovgaard, Chairman of the Program Committee, "there are plenty of joyous stunts and surprises being prepared for them." Most of the events-to-be are strictly secret; so the following reports from Building Chairman give only a slight hint of what will be served to the young folks on their Big Night:

Arthur Howard, Building Chairman of the Emerson School party, in Newton Upper Falls, states that his committee have a lot planned for the four hundred and more boys and girls who are expected to attend. At 6:30, when the festivities begin, there will be a costume parade; at 6:45, the Ghost Walk will provide thrills galore; and from then on the fun will be continuous. In the kindergarten room, there will be movies, an entertainment, games and refreshments for the kindergartners and first graders; grades 2 to 6 inclusive will also have movies and an entertainment in the auditorium and, later, games and refreshments. Grades 7, 8 and 9 will see movies and entertaining stunts; dancing to the music of the Rhythm-makers orchestra will follow; and all the while there will be fortune telling, games, boxing in the basement, and refreshments.

The Emerson School parties have always been tremendously successful; and this year's promise to equal, if not exceed, any that have gone before.

The 7th grade Waban party, to be held at the Union Church for seventy children, will feature as Mr. and Mrs. H. Donald Norstrand report, a House of Horrors, square dancing, games and movies—and everything is complete to the last detail. The committee in charge of this gay gathering includes: Mr. and Mrs. H. Donald Norstrand, Chairman, Mrs. Robert M. Booth, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Crosby, Dr. and Mrs. Christopher Duncan, Mrs. Allen H. Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. Matt B. Jones, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin B. Levy, Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Nye, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Ring, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Rowbotham, Mrs. Robert F. Schaefer and Mr. W. Merrill White.

Quoting Mr. John L. Hynes, Building Chairman of the party at the Sacred Heart School, Newton Centre, who says: "Mr. Gene Drennan, Chamber of Horrors chairman, reports he has a real live witch to be on hand, with 1949 model broom, caldron and full equipment. For the Junior High grades, there will be dancing until 10:00 p.m., with a 3 or 4 piece orchestra. Games have been arranged for each room of the elementary grades, with apples and candy for all, and prizes for the best costumes, etc. Believe this will be the biggest and best Halloween party yet."

Plans Candlelight Musical Nov. 25

Mrs. Mark F. Lesses, chairman of the Newton Chamber Music Society is planning a Candlelight Musical for the members of her committee.

It will be held prior to their annual fund raising concert which is being given on the evening of November 28th in the Newton High School Auditorium at which the Zimber String Sinfonietta will perform with Marcel Grandjany, the celebrated harpist.

Mrs. Lesses also wishes to announce that ticket sales for the concert to musical circles has been overwhelming and it appears that this year the Newton Chamber Music Society is presenting a "Musician's Musician" in Marcel Grandjany.

Progress On School Building Program Told PTA Council

A report on the present status of the Newton school building construction program was presented by the building committee of the Newton Council of Parent-Teacher Association at an open meeting of the Council.

Drawing his facts from a detailed work progress chart, R. Casper Swaney, co-chairman of the building committee, summarized the program, giving dates when the work was requested by the school committee, when architects plans were approved, when contracts were awarded and work started, and the estimated completion dates.

"Our concern," said Mr. Swaney, "is whether the school building program is on schedule. This program was drawn up by the school committee with the assistance of the council, and should be followed as closely as possible if we are to give our children the school facilities which they need."

Mark M. Stone, Ward School, co-chairman of this committee, introduced the other members serving with him. They are, in addition to Mr. Swaney, the Cabot-Clafin PTA, Lermond Simonds, Carr; Franklin Fessenden, Weeks Junior High; Everett Bryant, Hamilton; Robert Dietz, Jr., Newton Centre Association.

Mr. Fessenden gave facts and figures on the financing of a school building program. In the discussion that followed, he and Harold B. Gores, superintendent of schools, answered questions.

Functions of each of the Council committees were reviewed by George F. Koller, president, who urged delegates to sign up for work on the committee of their choice. He announced the following appointments of committee chairmen: Curriculum, Mrs. Quentin Geiman, Warren Jr. High; Teachers' Salaries, Dr. Leo Alexander, Peirce; Adult Education, Rev. Emory S. Bucke, Burr-Williams; Junior College, William C. Greene, Warren Jr. High; Membership, Henry B. Donovan, Davis; Program, Mrs. Serefin Tornabene, Bowen.

NAMED CHAIRMAN OF NATIONAL COMMITTEE

At the annual meeting of the Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross Thursday evening, October 13th, at the Normandie Room at Norumbega, the announcement that National Red Cross had appointed Mr. Maxwell P. Gaddis, Chairman of the Organization Committee for the National Red Cross Convention in Detroit in June 1950 was made by Mr. Philip Brown, Chairman of Public Information.

The annual meeting was prefaced by a reception from 6 to 6:30 to introduce the new executive director, Miss Marjorie Pheasant to the members of the Chapter.

Mr. Gaddis, Chairman, presided at the dinner meeting, at which the guest speaker was Dr. Herbert S. Talbot, Chief of Paraplegia Service at Cushing VA Hospital. Dr. Talbot spoke on "The Meaning of Rehabilitation". Assuming that we all agreed on the necessity of all possible physical and medical aid, Dr. Talbot went on to consider the additional rehabilitation needed in the mental health field. His aim was to readjust the patient with emphasis on the individual and his potentialities rather than his disabilities. The securing of jobs and job placement in general should be regarded as only a stage. He asked that they be placed in jobs and that in addition they get satisfaction from doing the job and be happy in it. He urged that Americans be GREAT HEARTED in the American tradition. The aim should be FREEDOM of action for the individual to make his own choice of a way of life. Dr. Talbot felt that a complete rehabilitation was best accomplished by helping people to help themselves.

Recognition for long years of service was given to Mrs. Emily Legnard for her thirty years of active service; and to Mrs. Robert W. Moore, Jr., for her twenty years of active service. Awards made in absentia were to Mrs. Walter J. Allen and Mrs. Harrison Kennard and Mrs. Louise Marshall for thirty years service; and to Miss Louise Jellerson, Executive Secretary 1926-1946 for her twenty years service.

"Is to create in each student a personal awareness of the importance of the sciences in our modern world. We achieve this awareness through study of the relations of the sciences to other domains of human activity. Dr. Navez, newly-appointed Head of the Science Department,

A graduate of the Royal Athenaeum in Brussels, Belgium, he received his Doctorate in Science with the highest distinction from the University of Brussels in 1922. He has held graduate fellowships in France, Italy, Switzerland, and the United States, and has taught or lectured in universities in Belgium, Brazil, England, France, Portugal, Switzerland, and the United States. Both Dr. and Mrs. Navez are naturalized citizens and live in Milton, where Dr. Navez has been teaching in Milton Academy since they came to this country in 1936. Dr. Navez is at present the Belgian Consul in Boston. From the wealth of his training and experience he plans to develop in the students of Newton Junior College "a better appreciation of the scientist's work and the reasons for his work." He also hopes "to open up to the student fields of interest which can be cultivated by the amateur scientist with great returns in pleasure."

A. T. Gregorian Opens Lecture Season

Arthur T. Gregorian opened his lecture season this week with a talk Monday afternoon before the American Home Department of the Auburndale Woman's Club. On Wednesday afternoon Mr. Gregorian lectured before the Woman's Society of the Methodist Church in Winthrop. On Thursday evening he is speaking before the Woman's Society of the First Baptist Church in Needham.

Next Monday evening in Mr. Gregorian's main showroom at the Old Stone Mill in Newton Lower Falls, he will give the first in a series of lectures for his customers and friends. Many Newton people are among those who have received invitations to this first lecture. Another will be presented in two weeks. If your name is not already on Mr. Gregorian's list for a future invitation, please let him know of your interest so that you may be included.

The little book on Oriental Rugs which Mr. Gregorian's friends have so long been awaiting is now on the press, and will be available very shortly. Entitled "Oriental Rugs and the Stories They Tell," this book presents the subject with the same fresh and personal approach which has made Mr. Gregorian's lectures so popular.

An Open Letter

Walter A. Hodgdon, candidate for Mayor, this week released a letter which he sent Chief Philip Russell of the Police Department. He stated:

"Your prompt and courteous reply to my open letter of October 4, relating to speaking on the public ways of our city, is greatly appreciated by this candidate for Mayor of Newton. It is the type of responsibility and courtesy that I am advocating in my present campaign."

"The second paragraph of your letter seems so sensible that I am taking the liberty of quoting it here. It reads: 'Public speaking in a street under proper conditions is not in itself unlawful, but as the streets are for the use of all the people, it is the duty of the police to take measures to stop public speaking whenever such speaking creates disorder or tends to create disorder, or whenever it unduly obstructs the public way by crowds which gather.'"

"On reading this the first time, it appeared to contain certain implications of political pressure that disturbed me. However, when I read it again, for some inexplicable reason, this uneasiness regarding your intent was dispelled. Now my feeling is that you really intend to treat me fairly and impartially. In fact, my belief is that you and the entire Newton Police Department will fully protect my fundamental right to Freedom of Speech. For myself, I can truthfully state, and I do so without reservations, that it is not my intention to do anything or say anything, on the public ways, that will tend to create disorder."

WALTER A. HODGDON.

League of Women Voters
Quizzes All Candidates

The League of Women Voters of Newton, in cooperation with the Newton Graphic, has prepared the following questionnaire as a public service in order to help Mr. and Mrs. Citizen become acquainted with the candidates and better understand some of the issues in the municipal election on Tuesday, November 8th. Newton voters will elect a Mayor, Twenty-one Aldermen—2 from each ward to be elected at large; 1 to be elected by voters of each ward, Seven School Committeemen (1 from each Ward to be elected at large).

Questions for Aldermen

Prepared by

The League of Women Voters of Newton

1. State briefly your training and experience for office.
2. Are you satisfied with the progress of the school building program?
3. Do you think that Newton now has adequate multiple housing facilities?
4. Is Newton's present tax-rate sufficient to provide the quality of public services required of a modern city?
5. Do you think that personal property tax is levied equitably here?
6. How can Newton's recreation facilities be improved?
7. Have you any suggestions for increasing the efficiency of our city government—such as a central purchasing department?

The Answers

ALDERMEN-AT-LARGEEdward A. Fahey
60 Allison St., Newton

1. Resident of Newton 46 years. Engaged in business within the City of Newton. Have been an Alderman City of Newton from 1937-1942, 1946-present. Education: Graduate of Newton Schools, Graduate of Northeastern University School of Law, Business: Practicing attorney in Newton since 1931.

2. Yes. Since 1919 a normal increasing population required the building of a new school or addition each year until 1939 at a total cost of approximately $6,000,000. A ratio of 3 schools each two years would take up the slack caused by non-building years. The present plans exceed this ratio.

3. No. Large old-fashioned houses in what are now single family home districts would make ideal multiple housing units provided areas of sufficient size containing these houses are legally changed into the proper zone, for multiple housing.

4. Yes. Unless living conditions force an increase in wages paid City employees. As approximately 80% of city budget is wages the tax rate follows closely this item.

5. I have never checked this.

6. I would like to see a study made of the Edmonds Park Area which I believe has possibilities for winter sports as well as swimming and skating. Silver Lake in Nonantum also should be surveyed as to swimming and skating possibilities. There is a definite need of improved skating and swimming facilities in the North side of the city.

7. Under the present administration rapid strides have been made toward increasing the efficiency of the city government. I can think of no better answer to this question than to continue in office the present Mayor, Mr. Lockwood.

William Kelly
48 Rustic St., Newton
No reply received.Carleton P. Merrill, 2nd
124 Newtonville Ave., Newton

1. Education in Newton schools. Attended Lowell Textile Evening School. Thorough knowledge of Newton's problems gained through work with various civic organizations.

2. Employed as sales agent for textile machinery importer. Member: Newton Improvement Association, Mt. Ida Improvement Association, Newton Civic Association, Boston Junior Chamber of Commerce.

3. No. I await with interest the report of Professor Fred.

Josephine Thompson

Funeral services for Mrs. Josephine K. Thompson of 77 Lexington street, Auburndale, were held Tuesday morning from the Joseph A. MacDonald Funeral Home, Watertown. A requiem high mass was celebrated in St. Bernard's Church, West Newton by Rev. John Saunders. Burial was in the Needham Cemetery with prayers by Rev. John Lawlor of St. Joseph's Church, Needham.

Mrs. Thompson, a lifelong resident of Newton, died suddenly at her home Saturday October 15. She was in her 78th year and was born in Newton, the daughter of Malcolm and Katherine (McKee) Bryson.

She leaves one son, Albert S. Thompson of Waltham, three daughters, Miss Beulah A. and Miss Viola Thompson of Auburndale and Mrs. Edith Erwin of Waltham, also two sisters, Miss Annette Bryson and Miss Emily A. Bryson of Newtonville; two grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

erick J. Adams of M.I.T. Professor Adams is making a study of the Zoning Ordinances under the direction of the Newton Planning Board.

4. Newton's program for new schools, roads etc., to which the city is committed by the long range planning committee may require a slight increase in taxes if the Massachusetts rebate to the city does not increase. I believe that Newton can compare in services with a city in the United States.

5. Yes.

6. Recreation facilities are being improved and will continue to be improved in future years. Albermarle Playground, Lyons Playground, Hawthorn Recreation and Bullocks Pond are four of the areas that are going to be improved in the next few years. However, work on these and other areas should be speeding up where investigations show that there is a lack of ample facilities. Edmonds Park is one area that should be restored as a recreation area. Here there is ample space for skating and coasting and for the establishment of picnic grounds.

7. I endorse the establishment of a central purchasing department. Many other changes to increase the efficiency of the city government are administrative and thus it would not be within the power of the Board of Aldermen to change.

ALDERMEN-AT-LARGERiley J. Hampton
9 Clarendon St., Newtonville

1. Resident of Newton for past 18 years. Present Alderman-at-Large, Ward 2. Business experience: Twenty-seven years experience including Branch Office and Sales Manager, Manufacturers Agent, Personnel Administration, Purchasing and Production.

Civic Activities: Executive Committee of Boston Soldiers and Sailors Recreation Committee during War II; Chairman of Entertainment Committee at U.S.O. Buddies Club, Neighborhood Warden on A.R.P., Chairman 1949 Newton Community Chest Campaign, Chairman of Newton Wellesley Hospital Building Fund Campaign.

2. Yes. The present building program is well planned and is progressing according to schedule. Some changes may be required in the schedule to meet changing conditions.

3. Probably not. This problem is being studied by a special committee of experts from the long range Planning Board. Appropriate action will be taken after studying the report of this committee.

4. Yes. The tax rate is adjusted to meet the changing requirements. The efficiency of the present Administration and the Board of Aldermen makes it possible to have better than average public services and the lowest approved tax rate in the State at the same time.

5. The tax valuations are determined by the Tax Assessor working under Statutes of the State. Changes can only be made by an act of the State Legislature.

6. They can be improved by expansion whenever a sufficient number of citizens are willing to increase the tax rate to pay for such expansion. At present, a liberal expansion program is in progress. The Newton program is well planned and is administered effectively although there may be some difference of opinion on certain specific points.

7. The present Administration and the Board of Aldermen are constantly studying ways and means of giving the most efficient City Government possible at the lowest cost. Whenever the cost of a central purchasing department could be established as an economy, I'll be for it.

Gordon L. Hawes

46 Lathrop St., Newtonville 60
1. was born and brought up in Newton, and I am acquainted with the problems of the city, also I have had courses in American Municipal government at Boston University.

2. At present many of the older schools in the city should be replaced as soon as possible by modern fireproof buildings that will provide our children with the latest in educational facilities.

3. In regard to the housing facilities, Newton's Oak Hill Village should be sufficient, and our present building costs maintained so that the housing in the city has lasting value and contribute to make Newton a "Garden City".

4. Yes, because of the shrinking incomes and increasing costs of living the tax rate should not be raised; however, the city has services that are superior to those in our neighboring localities, and we must maintain our standard.

5. In comparison with our neighboring cities and towns I would say the personal property tax is levied fairly in Newton.

6. The children of Newton enjoy excellent recreational facilities at present and we should maintain this high standing.

7. I don't think we should have a central purchasing department in Newton as it would entail extra unnecessary expense.

William R. Mattson

28 Brookdale Rd., Newtonville
1. Graduated with B.S. Degree from M.I.T.; veteran with overseas service in World War I; 25 years executive experience in business. I am well acquainted with the problems of Newton through extensive service with Community Chest, Red Cross, U.S.O. and other drives and village A.R.P. Chairman in World War II. A charter member of the Newton Welfare Board, I served for four years and studied the welfare problems of the city. For the past four years, have served as Alderman at Large from Ward 2 and have been on the Finance, Claims and Rules, Kenrick Fund, and Traffic committees of the Board.

2. In general, "Yes". The short-range program is progressing satisfactorily and the plans for building development in future years should be sufficiently flexible to meet changes in population areas, building costs and the financial status of the city.

3. "No". Newton needs more multiple housing facilities, but such construction must be carefully supervised and developed in accordance with the zoning laws of the city.

4. "Yes". Newton's tax rate is one of the lowest in the State and can be kept relatively low if our public services are efficiently handled and financed. This is being done and a higher tax rate would not necessarily improve the quality of our public services.

5. The levying of personal property taxes is a function of the assessors' department and, I am sure, that the present assessors accomplished this work on an equitable basis. Any individual can protest to the assessors if he thinks his personal property tax is too high or too low.

6. Newton's recreational facilities have an excellent rating in comparison with other cities in Massachusetts. Our recreation department is ably conducted and the best way that its facilities can be improved is through a more generous financial policy on the part of the city to provide certain improvements, already recommended by the department.

7. By and large, Newton has an efficient, honest and capable city government. I have always favored a central purchasing department and have urged the executive branch of the government to provide greater publicity to acquaint the citizens of Newton with important details that occur at City Hall.

The most important and effective way of maintaining or increasing the efficiency of our city government is to arouse greater public interest, persuade every voter to become thoroughly acquainted with the qualifications of our political candidates, than vote and vote intelligently. The greatest danger in Newton, today is the political apathy of the electorate. "Bad politicians are elected by the Newton-Waltham area and such practices as the dumping of silk mill waste and starch material from a paper mill in Newton have been discontinued. Waste flowing into the river from the dye works at Needham has been eliminated recently through construction of a mile long sewer.

Additional action taken by the Health Department has helped eliminate sewage contamination and surface drain overflow. Recent legislative appropriations providing for the construction of additional trunk line sewers on both sides of the river, mark further progress in the constant effort to keep the Charles clean and restore its recreational usefulness to the citizens along its banks.

Hunnewell Club

It was with deep regret that the resignation of Harry Dexter as Treasurer of the Hunnewell Club was accepted at a special meeting. Mr. Dexter has held the Treasurer's position for the past 21 years and has worked untiringly in the interests of the Club. Although relieved of the responsibilities of Treasurer, Harry plans to keep up his active interest in the Club and enjoy its many activities as he has in the past.

Mason Stone, Jr. was unanimously elected the New Treasurer and brings with him a life long interest in the Club. He is the son of Mason Stone who served the Club as secretary for 25 years. John P. Sutherland was elected to the Board of Directors to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Frank Colony. The season's activities are now in full swing at the Club with the weekly bridges already under way and the bowling tournaments scheduled to start within the week. All indications are that this will be one of the Club's fullest and gayest seasons.

LIGHTED
THIS LAMP

Seventy years ago Thomas Alva Edison invented the incandescent lamp — and thereby shaped for America a future that grows ever brighter through the years.

He shaped a future of opportunity. Today, more than a quarter of a million Americans are making careers in the electric light and power industry. Millions more are employed in industries that owe their very existence to electric power.

And he shaped a future of faith. The continuing miracles of electricity are tributes to the skill and ability of free individuals working and thinking in a free society.

How right it is that the Statue of Liberty, symbol of American freedom, proudly holds on high a symbol of American enterprise — a torch illuminated by electricity!

Says People Grateful For Marshall Plan

The Misses Dorothy and Marie Kelly returned recently from their trip to Europe on the Queen Mary. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kelly of 20 Minot place, Newtonville. They visited England, Ireland and France.

The girls were lavish in their praise for Ireland. They visited many Irish homes and were impressed with such story book features as thatched roofs and open hearths. The most vivid impression they brought from Ireland, however, was the generosity and wit of the Irish people.

Everywhere in Europe, people questioned them about the Marshall plan, and were grateful to America for it. In England, as a result of the pound devaluation, American money went a lot further than it would ordinarily. In France, because of the language difference they found it more difficult to talk with the man on the street, but gathered that the average Frenchman has much respect for "l'Americain."

The girls say that their most thrilling experience was seeing the Statue of Liberty on their return voyage.

The First Church in Newton, located in Newton Centre, will dedicate its renovated church auditorium at a special service this Sunday at eleven a.m. The present structure was erected in 1904 and is the sixth edifice to be used in the 285 years of the church's history.

The Service of Dedication which was used when the present structure was first erected in 1904 will be repeated at the service on October 30th. This service will mark the completion of the first part of a program which also includes the addition of a Parish House, construction of which is well under way with completion expected early in the New Year.

The meeting will also provide an opportunity for each of the mayoralty candidates to give a five-minute address outlining his qualifications for election. As the spirited three-cornered contest has developed a number of disputed issues, an instructive and exhilarating exchange is expected.

The meeting will be held in the Parish Hall of the Newton Highlands Congregational Church at 6:30 p.m.

Oriental Rug Talk Proves Interesting

A very receptive and interested group filled Mr. Gregorian's main showroom at the Old Stone Mill last Monday evening to listen to his talk on Oriental Rugs. Since Mr. Gregorian was in his shop, he was able to use more rugs as examples to illustrate his talk than he can take with him when he goes out to lecture. Following the talk a variety of Oriental fruits and candies were served.

The next lecture at Mr. Gregorian's shop will be Tuesday evening, November 8. Although Mr. Gregorian has hundreds of friends to whom he will send invitations as fast as possible, if this particular date is convenient for you, please call him and ask for this time.

CITY-WIDE HALLOWE'EN PLANNED MONDAY NIGHT

To Play Host To Parents November 4

Newton High School teachers play host in their rooms to an expected, large turnout of parents Friday, November 4, 7 to 9:30 p.m. Setting the note for American Education Week, November 7 to 10, the Open House gives parents, fathers especially, an opportunity to meet the teachers, examine the buildings and equipment, and see exhibits of teaching methods and pupil work. Parents are welcome guests in their children's classrooms during American Education Week.

Special exhibits and activities are offered in many departments as the Newton Public Schools direct the spotlight of public attention on themselves. "Parents and other members of the public are urged during this week especially to consider seriously the state of their schools, and to express their concern and interest in American education problems," says Raymond A. Green, principal, in inviting parents to attend the Open House at the High School.

Parents are offered unusual opportunities in viewing many phases of high school work, from shopwork to art exhibits; from pie-making to science demonstrations. Members of the National Honor Society and the Future Teachers of America plan to greet parents as they enter the various buildings, and guide them to their destinations.

Village Fair to Be Held November 10

The First Methodist Church of Newton Upper Falls is planning a "Village Fair" to be held Thursday, November 10. Doors will be open at 2 p.m. There will be the usual tables of interest to everyone: housekeeping, children's, food, candy, plants, grab, punch, and white elephant. The men of the church are in charge of a country store, a feature of the Fair and the members of the Flower Guild will conduct a postoffice in the store.

A turkey supper will be served at 6:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall, followed at 7:45 p.m. by entertainment, "The Village Follies" to be presented under the direction of the choir. Everyone in the church is working hard to make this event, sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service, successful.

First Church is, at the present time, building on adjoining property a new parsonage for its present minister and wife - the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Francis D. Taylor.

Next Monday night, shivers and chills and goose pimples will run rampant throughout Newton, when witches, spooks and hobgoblins start "doing their stuff" at the more than two hundred and forty Halloween parties staged by Newton for over ten thousand school children of all ages.

"This is the ninth consecutive year these city-wide Halloween parties have been held," said Mrs. Ragna Hovgaard, Chairman of the Program Committee. "Each year they have been increasingly successful; and I believe next Monday's will be the best ever. The fourteen hundred members of the committees have been tireless in their efforts to arrange outstanding programs, and they deserve the greatest praise for their wholehearted, unselfish and efficient work. They have set a splendid example of civic co-operation - which I am convinced no other community, anywhere, can possibly excel. Backed by such spirit, the success of this year's parties is a foregone conclusion."

This wind-up week in the planning and preparation is bringing to Mrs. Hovgaard final reports from Building Chairmen. Among them are the following:

Fire Chief Corcoran Issues Warning

Newton, Fire Chief John E. Corcoran issues the following warning to the general public as a fire prevention measure:

1. Discontinue the use of papier mache jack-o-lanterns with candles for Halloween celebrations. The use of such lanterns in a nearby city recently caused explosions and resultant fire.

2. With the approach of winter weather, many heating units are substituted in the home before large heating units are considered necessary. The electric radiator comes under this heading and as these radiators consume an average of 160 watts and the average buyer is a homeowner who usually resides in an older type house having only one circuit distribution, they are listed as liable to cause fire if installed under such conditions.

The national board of fire underwriters requests a separate circuit of No. 12 wire to provide for any electrical appliance exceeding 1200 watts. This is a most important requisite to the installation of such appliances in order to prevent fire.

For Your Family's Sake

Ask Your Lawyer...

Have births, deaths or marriages in your family changed the effect of your will? Will your family's legacies be sharply reduced because of estate taxes?

Should you leave a greater proportion of your property to your nearest dependents? (Living costs have risen sharply over the past few years.)

Our officers will be glad to give you facts and figures on taxes and living costs. This information may show you why you should seek your lawyer's counsel on appropriate revision of your will to better protect your family's future.

Make Awards to Six Volunteer Workers

Red Cross is fundamentally a volunteer organization, whose work is possible because thousands of people contribute their time and special talents as well as funds.

This year the Newton Chapter of Red Cross is 31 years old and Mr. Maxwell P. Gaddis, Chairman of the Newton Chapter, made awards to six volunteers for their long and faithful service.

Mrs. J. Walter Allen has a record of 31 years of service. She has worked actively in production. As a Staff Aide she helped on the Reporter, the Chapter monthly paper, and had charge of the addressograph. She has also assisted in the Fund Campaigns.

Mrs. Frederic H. Kennard has served in production for 30 years.

Mrs. Emily Legnard has served 31 years. She has been one of the leading production workers. During the last year she served daily as a volunteer from nine to four. Mrs. Legnard does Staff Aide service on the switchboard and throughout the Chapter. During World War II she contributed over 6000 hours to the Chapter.

Mrs. Louis H. Marshall has served 31 years. She is one of five honorary members of the Newton Chapter. She has been an active Red Cross leader in Newton Highlands both in production and in Fund Raising.

Miss Louise Jellerson has served for 23 years. From 1926-1946 she was executive secretary and in that capacity took an active part in organizing and carrying out the work of the volunteers. From 1946 to the present, Miss Jellerson has served the Chapter as Staff Aide on the switchboard.

Mrs. Robert W. Moore, Jr., has served for the past 20 consecutive years, in addition to making surgical dressings in World War I, in World War II she served over 6000 hours, and has worked as a Motor Service driver, Canteen worker and Nurse's Aide, and was in the first group of Gray Ladies at Bedford Veterans Hospital, subsequently organizing the Gray Lady Service at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital. sociates, and the Senior and Junior classes; officers of the International, Drama, English, and Tusitala clubs; Future Teachers of America; pupils recommended by the Newtonian; and more than 100 others nominated individually by teachers. These students will hear the explanation of the proposed exchange and will receive application blanks. A faculty committee will evaluate all applications and select the pupils for the Workshop.

The aim of the committee is "to secure a representative cross-section of the city within a group of pupils able to profit by the experience," said its chairman, Mr. Floyd Rinker, head of the Department of English at Newton High School. "The school works for a truly representative group, and wants to offer the opportunity of application not exclusively to the outstanding boys and girls in grades XI and XII who are potential leaders." In order to secure this group, each teacher was asked to name three pupils, two seniors and one junior, to attend Wednesday's meeting.

This is the second year that Newton High School has participated in an exchange. In contrast with last year's exchange city, Wyandotte, Michigan which was 98% industrial, Frederick is situated in a predominantly agricultural area, sixty miles northwest of Baltimore. It is near enough to eliminate the necessity of Pullman travel, so that expenses this year will be considerably less than last year's.

Newton High School is arranging the exchange with the cooperation of Newton Chapter, American Red Cross, Mrs. Riley Hampton, Director of Junior Red Cross activities. The High School Advisory Committee includes Mr. Harold Gores, Superintendent of Schools; Mr. Raymond A. Green, Principal, Newton High School; Dr. C. Elwood Drake, Assistant Principal; Mr. Charles L. Peltier, Social Studies department head; Miss Margaret M. South, Senior Class Adviser; and Miss Emily P. Burdon, Junior Class Adviser. Mr. Floyd Rinker is the committee chairman.

Parents and friends of the school who want further information should feel free to consult with Mr. Rinker, who is in charge of Newton High School's Program of Inter-School Community Studies. Mr. Rinker states that two other plans for exchanges with nearby schools are nearing completion.

Woman's Council Second Church In Newton

Thursday and Friday, November 3rd and 4th, will see the Parish House of the Second Church in Newton transformed into a series of specialty shops, for the Squash End Fair which is being sponsored by the Woman's Council. Squashes grown by church members will be part of the decorations, and the workers will wear the green, yellow and orange smocks that were made at their sewing bees this past summer.

Beside the shops where almost numberless objects will be offered for sale, there will be a magician and movies for the younger set afterwards; a bridge party, fashion show, and two evenings of musical drama for older folks. There will be a snack bar, lunches, teas, a turkey supper on Thursday and a special spaghetti on Friday; there will be a hobby exhibit, and gifts from far away India for sale, sent by the church's medical missionaries, Mr. and Mrs. Hale Cook. There will be a pianist; and photographers, including a camera that develops pictures on the spot. And due to the kindness of a local merchant, the Newtonville Outlet Company is providing a "Fashion Forecast" with Hart models presenting about forty costumes.

Mrs. William F. King of Estabrook road, West Newton is the general chairman; Mrs. Hugh Robinson is director of entertainments, and Mrs. John Campbell is acting as advisor. Mrs. Duncan Russell is treasurer, Miss Catherine Bolster is in charge of admissions, and Mrs. Arthur Williams and Mrs. Clark Macomber are handling publicity.

The doors will be open from 10 in the morning until midnight both days, and the proceeds go to the maintenance of the Woman's Council's extensive benevolence program.

Planned Parenthood League

Mrs. Emil Hartl, program committee chairman for the Planned Parenthood League of Massachusetts, with headquarters in Boston, was the guest of the Newton Chapter at the first meeting of the board of directors held at the home of Mrs. Ernest W. "Oriental Rugs and the Stories They Tell"

by Arthur T. Gregorian

The book that Mr. Gregorian's friends have so long awaited is now on the press, and will be available within the next few weeks — in time for Christmas giving.

Beautifully printed with over 30 illustrations of rugs, end-papers showing a map of the principal rug-producing cities of Persia, and twelve chapters which cover the interesting phases of Oriental rug making, this book meets a long-felt need.

This book is fully authoritative, and presents first-hand information as Mr. Gregorian is a native of Persia. The trade has found the material so valuable that the chapters are being serialized in the Oriental Rug Magazine, the official organ of the Oriental rug trade. Those of you who heard Mr. Gregorian's series of lectures on the radio last winter, will find the same approach here.

Mr. Gregorian is now taking orders for autographed copies at the special pre-publication price of only $2.00.

Call or write him today for as many copies at this special price as you may wish for yourself and for gifts

Letters

Editor, Newton Graphic:

As a citizen whose long ambition to move to the City of Newton was recently fulfilled, it has been somewhat disturbing to me to read the pronouncements of the two candidates for mayor who are challenging the re-election of Mayor Lockwood. According to one candidate, Newton is in the hands of "special interests" who have done nothing for years but neglect its schools, roads and playgrounds. According to the other candidate, Newton is now, or has been, in the hands of mayors who have been both "insufficient and inefficient."

I moved to Newton with my family on the urging of friends, who assured me that Newton offered for me and my family all the things which these candidates now proclaim loudly to be nonexistent.

I came to Newton because of the schools. If I have heard it said once, I have heard it said a thousand times, and always with admiration, "There are no schools like those of the City of Newton. Their standing is countrywide." Obviously, good teachers do not grow on trees, nor do good schools come into being overnight, and it should be clear to any thinking person that the excellence of our school system must be due to people like Mayor Lockwood and his predecessors, in cooperation with the School Committee, who have made adequate plans over a long period of years for new schools and the improvement of the older ones.

I came to Newton because of the favorable tax rate. As a Town Meeting member of the Town of Reading I became well acquainted with matters affecting the tax rate and its importance to the home owner. I have long wondered how a city of the size of Newton, with its numerous schools, large playgrounds, lakes and ponds for swimming and skating, and attractive roads, has been able to enjoy the favorable tax rate it has—which rate, I am reliably informed, is the lowest approved rate for any Massachusetts city. Such a tax rate must be the result only of honest and efficient administration and utilization of every proper means to save the tax payers' money. Undoubtedly, there are lower tax rates throughout the State, but before these can be acclaimed investigation must be had as to the nature of the services rendered. Is there a municipal water department? Is there municipal collection of garbage? of waste paper? Are the teachers adequately paid? Are there playgrounds? Is there an adequate police and fire department? I am quite sure that to any Newton resident these questions may seem foolish, because they are essential municipal services, but the sad fact remains that in many places throughout Massachusetts the residents have their own wells as their water supply, pay a private contractor for garbage and waste paper collection, and have under-staffed police and fire departments. When we consider all that we have here in the way of excellent municipal services, there can be no question municipal officers of our City have done a fine job over a period of time. I might add that the feeling in this regard was confirmed recently by the "Outstanding Mayor Award" to Mayor Lockwood by the Massachusetts Mayors' Association. NEWTON, Oct. 27. F. H. LETTERS CONT.

I came to Newton because it is a beautiful city and I believe a good place for my family and me. It is my wish that it remain the same, and to that end I feel that the ignorant criticisms and empty promises of millennium put forth by the candidates opposing Mayor Lockwood should have no part in our City government; and that we should give our allegiance to people like Mayor Lockwood, who, like his predecessors, has given his heart and mind toward the good government of Newton.

Editor, Newton Graphic:

There were many guests in my home the other evening discussing Newton and its problems. One of the candidates for Mayor started to speak. Perhaps we were a bit bored at the prospect of listening to another political speech. We had heard so many speeches. This man's face lit up as he said the word "Newton". We all turned to him—drawn to him without quite knowing why. We wanted to hear what he had to say.

Sitting in a small straight chair, his huge body seemed to fit his powerful personality. Not a slick, smooth, glib glamorous person, but rather a grandfatherly sort. When we talked about the schools for our "kiddies" we knew that he was talking about the kind of schools that he would want for his own grandchildren.

Questions were thrown at him. He gave us the answers—not stock answers that he had rehearsed. Though he wiped his brow and talked slowly, we could see that he was a bit nervous, we felt that he had carefully considered each and every problem—the words he would say or how he would impress us—the problem for its own solution.

The schools—he had gone to the Clafin School and other schools to see for himself what was wrong and what could be done.

He did not promise us new schools or lower taxes, or the moon. He promised us only that he would give it his full attention. He told us that he would probably make mistakes. He is only human. We knew that they would not be careless mistakes. We could sense that here was a man that could and would get things done.

My friends asked him personal questions. He told us frankly and honestly about his business and personal successes, not boasting, rather humbly so that we would have confidence in his ability to do a good job.

Suddenly, so it seemed, it was late. Mr. Janse said goodnight to us and was gone. But we all continued to sit almost speechless for a few moments and then we all started talking at once. We had been in the presence of a big man!

I shall vote for Mr. John A. Janse for Mayor of Newton because I believe that sincere, honest business ability in a kind, unselfish grandfatherly heart are a combination I want in the next Mayor of our City.

Non-Academic Life Off to Good Start

"We feel that the non-academic life of Newton Junior College is off to a really good start," says

Dr. C. Elwood Drake, Director. "In our guidance program, I have discussed with every freshman his scores on the reading and aptitude tests administered during Freshman Orientation Days, and his plans for junior college. I am highly impressed with the caliber of our freshman class this year."

Dr. Drake has also announced appointment of a Student Committee, including two members of last year's Student Council, Addison Lesser and Frank Fay, to plan the fall student program. Other members of the committee are Judith Rubin, Elaine Koffman, and John Chase, sophomores; and Mary Jean Stokes, Alton LeBeau, Francine Daner, and Richard Morley, freshmen. These students will serve until elections are held later in the year. Elected chairman of the Student Committee at a meeting Friday, October 21, was Frank

Fay. Alton LeBeau was elected secretary. Announcement was made at the meeting that the first issue of the Junior College news sheet under the editorship of Frederick Eisenberg would appear Monday, October 24. Chairman Fay also announced that a basketball schedule was in progress of preparation and would be made public at an early date.

Plans were made at the meeting for a Halloween mixer October 28 to enable students and faculty to become better acquainted. Members of the Student Committee and the faculty are to be introduced.

MARGARET R. BLEMKER

Says Turkey Looks To America For Aid

"Turkey is looking to us not only for military but also moral support and example," says Miss Margaret Ruth Blemker, Associate Secretary of the American Board of Foreign Missions, who will speak Wednesday afternoon, November 2nd before the Women's Guild of the Central Congregational Church of Newtonville.

Miss Blemker came to her post in the Foreign Department of the American Board from three years as a teacher in the American School For Girls, Izmir, Turkey. The Near East mission which includes Turkey, Syria, Greece and the Lebanese Republic, are her special responsibilities.

"Bubble gum, popular songs, American cars, slang, movies, the new look in clothes,—such is the picture newspaper reports are giving of modern Turkey," says Miss Blemker. "While it is true that Turkey is no longer the land of the Sultan, the veil, the harem and the fez, there are still many old and picturesque features to delight the traveler.

"On the other hand nothing so much impresses the visitor to Turkey as the similarity, in many respects with western life, and the modernization which has come rapidly since the establishment of the Turkish Republic 25 years ago," she adds.

Newton School Secretaries Assn.

The first meeting of the school year of the Newton School Secretaries Association was held at the Hotel Hollis Wednesday evening, October 19. After the dinner, a business meeting was held. Miss Phoebe A. Bell, past president of the Newton School Secretaries, and now president of the Massachusetts Association of School Secretaries, reported that the state association was now affiliated with the Massachusetts Teachers Federation, the state organization for teachers. We did some "cutting up" at our house last week. It was such a pleasure to use the knives we had sharpened at the Newton Cycle Shop, we just cut away. I had my kitchen knives as well as carving tools done and I hadn't realized before that "expert sharpening" is necessary to give the blade a keen edge.

It cuts your time in the kitchen in half when you have efficient cutlery at your disposal.

We're looking forward to giving the "Thanksgiving Bird" a royal welcome and so will the man in your home, if you have his carving knife nicely sharpened at the Newton Cycle Shop.

You'll also need a sharp cutting tool to make the Halloween Jack-O-Lantern from the pumpkin and for the pumpkin pie which hits the spot especially at this time of year.

United Church Canvass Personalities

William A. Jackson of 7 Walden street, Newtonville is a newly appointed member of the United Church Canvass Committee of the Newton Council of Churches who comes to his post well qualified by his interest and participation in good causes in the community. Jackson, a native of Hartford Connecticut and a graduate of the public schools there and Trinity College, is the son of a Protestant Episcopal minister who served in the Diocese of Connecticut for over fifty years. In World War I. He was abroad in the American Field Service acting as a driver in the French Ambulance Corps.

Mr. Jackson has been a resident of Newton for 15 years and during that time has been active in a number of community activities. He served as chairman of Troop 15 Boy Scout Committee and has held several Community Chest posts last year being Residential Chairman and this year serving as Assistant to the Campaign Chairman. He was the treasurer of the first two United Church Canvasses sponsored by the Independent Laymen's Committee. He has served as Chairman of the Men's Division of the Church Service League, Charles River District and has been a vestryman at the Church of the Messiah Auburndale, recently retiring as senior Warden.

"Bill" Jackson as his many intimates call him is associated with the management of the American Cynamid Company with offices in Boston. He is married to the former Ruth MacLeod. They have three children, William A. Junior who is employed at the Newton Motor Sales, Janet, a Graduate Nurse at Newton Hospital, and Wilbur who is a student at Burdett Business College.

Mr. Jackson is a great believer in co-operative endeavor among the churches and said recently in a talk to laymen at the Church of the Messiah, "There are certain things we can do together better than we can do alone as separate churches. The United Church Canvass is one of these. One church advertising and broadcasting its activities in the endeavor makes a very small ripple in the pool of our community life, but twenty-seven churches moving as a unit with joint publicity and a common aim will make a splash that is noticed beyond the confines of our city. This is the secret of the United Church Canvass and the church leaders in community after community are learning to co-operate and elevate the annual drive for church funds to a dignified plane where it receives the respect, encouragement, and notice of the entire community."

"As to this current campaign in which the emphasis is based on the ringing of the church bell as a symbol of our American freedoms I know it more important than ever before that the churches present a united front, both for loyalty Sunday on November 13 and Canvass Day, November 27. I am sure that the people of Newton will "Keep them Ringing."

THE CITY CAMPAIGN

"One good term deserves another" could be the slogan for the campaign of Mayor Theodore R. Lockwood for re-election as Mayor of Newton, for his campaign is built on the record. In his appearances before various groups the Mayor has set forth just what has been accomplished during his first term in office as Mayor, and has met with facts and figures the arguments advanced by his two opponents. That was the program he followed at the crowded gathering last Monday of the League of Women Voters at the Newtonville Woman's Club, answering with facts all the challenges from his opposing candidates and all the questions from the floor.

Discussing the Newton tax rate Mayor Lockwood has pointed out facts which prove the city's excellent position in comparison with other cities in Massachusetts. He cited figures to show that whereas from 1924 to 1929 Newton's rate was $3.36 per thousand lower than the average rate for the 39 cities in the state, the figure for the period 1930 to 1939 was $8.44 below the average, and from 1940 to 1947 it was $9.96 below the average, in the years 1948 and 1949, with Lockwood as Mayor, Newton's tax rate is $11.85 lower than the average of the 39 cities.

In reply to questions as to use of the surplus, the Mayor has pointed out that under the law the surplus of any city is the property of the taxpayers, and that the correct and legal procedure with that surplus is to use it for the reduction of taxes, and that no city officials have any right to withhold more than a sound and safe margin of surplus to cover current expenses of the city.

Commenting on the reckless promises of his opponents, Mayor Lockwood has made it clear to the voters that there are 23 department heads and 14 boards who, working with the full-time Mayor and under constant review by the board of 21 Aldermen, direct and guide the city's expenditures. The Mayor believes that Newton's city or organization compares more favorably with those of any other cities.

Dealing with the rise in the city's debt Mayor Lockwood showed that the per capita debt has been reduced by 43 per cent. The debt figure in 1900 was $5,824,000, compared with the figure of $8,097,000 in 1949; which is an increase of 39 per cent, against a population increase for the same period of 250 per cent, and an increase in valuation of 350 per cent. The per capita valuation increased from $1716 in 1900 to $2370 in 1949, or 38 per cent, the per capita debt falling from $173 to $88—or, as he said, a drop of 43 per cent.

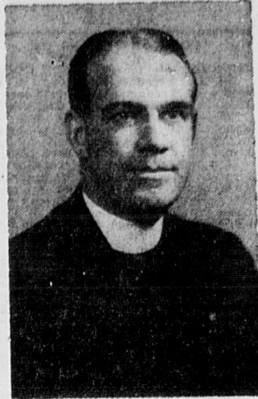

Mayor Lockwood has explained the rigid pursuit of wise city economy, facing the fact that more money is constantly needed to carry on the city's affairs while no new sources of revenue other than real estate have appeared. Thorough studies are made by him, the city treasurer, the comptroller, the assessors, the director of public works; and long-range studies by the planning board and discussions with the Bankers' association and the directors of the Newton Taxpayers' Association are in the financial picture of the city. All these findings are studied by the Finance Committee of the Board of Aldermen and are then reviewed by the entire board. These are the ways by which the cost of Newton's city government are kept down and by which Newton in 1949 has the lowest approved tax rate of any city in the Commonwealth.

A comment heard after the League of Women Voters meeting was this: "People like to live in Newton. They have confidence in their city government. Mayor Lockwood keeps it that way."

Mayor Lockwood has a heavy schedule for speaking engagements covering the final days of the mayoralty campaign, highlights including the meeting Sunday evening, October 30, at the Hunnewell Club in Newton. The largest hall at the club will be needed, the attendance at the October 23 meeting being close to an overflow. Reports from workers in the Lockwood campaign in all wards of the city will be made and the Mayor will speak.

The Mayor will speak at the Rotary meeting Monday noon, October 31, and he will attend Halloween gatherings in the afternoon and evening. On the evening of Tuesday, November 1, he will address the Men's Club of the Newton Highlands Congregational Church.

With the other two candidates for Mayor he will speak Wednesday, November 2, at the Republican Club non-partisan rally held for all candidates for election, at the Weeks Junior High School. Each candidate for Mayor will be given ten minutes to speak, with an extra five minutes allowed for rebuttal. Candidates for contested seats for Alderman-at-large, ward Alderman and School Committee will have two minutes each. The pattern of the meeting will be similar to that held by the Newton League of Women Voters last Monday, October 24, at the Newtonville Woman's Club

"Army" Fund Group Heard On Radio

Last Saturday, Dwight Colburn, General Chairman for Newton of the Salvation Army's 1949-1950 appeal for funds, together with several members of the local Service Fund Committee, appeared on a special broadcast of the Yankee Network over station WNAC.

Dorothy Kraus, of the WNAC staff, conducted the broadcast which took the form of informal interviews with Dwight Colburn, James C. Reynolds of the City of Newton Welfare Department, Miss Emily Hickey, Probation Officer of the Newton Police Department, Mrs. Holden of the Newton Family Service Bureau, and Mrs. Lucille Palmer, a social worker at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital.

Mr. Colburn stressed the fact that twenty per cent of Newton's fund quota stays in the City and is used by Newton's Service Fund Committee when and where there is need. There is no overhead expense in administering the fund, and every penny consequently, is spent for unusual and emergency relief which no other local agency can meet.

Mr. James C. Reynolds of the Welfare Department, who has been a member of the Service Fund Committee since 1943, stated that the Committee represents the Family Service Bureau, the Newton-Wellesley Hospital, the Newton Court, the City's Welfare Department, and the Soldiers Relief. He pointed out that the Fund Committee is geared to give help quickly. For instance, the Welfare Department, when helping a family where the father has been out of work for some time, cannot pay bills in arrears, such as accumulated electric light bills. Nevertheless, the family is in danger of having its service shut off. But the urgent she can use the Fund and send the clinic patient to a Newton dentist.

Salvation Army Service Fund gets into the picture, and the family is re-established on a secure basis.

In her work as Probation Officer, Miss Emily Hickey said that the Service Fund enables her to meet immediate calls for small sums of money. She uses it many times for car fare when she finds someone, called perhaps to appear in Court, is without money to return home. It is also often used for the care of neglected children in foster homes or for children on probation.

The Service Fund repeatedly provides immediate help for large families of low income level, Mrs. Holden, of the Newton Family Service Bureau, revealed. Frequently, in such families, an unexpected emergency may strike. Or there just may not be enough money in the father's pay envelope to supply all the shoes and rubbers needed. Then the Bureau draws on the fund, where there is need. There is no overhead expense in administering the fund, and every penny consequently, is spent for unusual and emergency relief which no other local agency can meet.

therefore, where the need for a denture or other dental care is

In response to a request for an additional statement, Mr. Reynolds told his listeners that he felt that "the personnel of this Service Fund Committee of the Salvation Army in the City of Newton is unique. Each one of us is working with the needy and the underprivileged daily through our own agencies, and yet needs occur frequently when the restrictions of our particular agency cannot immediately meet that need. This Fund, without red tape or restriction is there to use and so is important in bringing help, strength and consolation to hundreds of Newton citizens yearly who are worried, disturbed or in physical or mental trouble."

RED FEATHER CAMPAIGN AT 31.3% OF ITS GOAL

At the first report luncheon of the Greater Boston Red Feather Campaign, Newton reported $93,348 or 31.3 per cent of its goal. This amount represents approximately 50 per cent of the goals of the divisions which did advance solicitation. No funds from the Residential Division were included as Monday night was the first report night of that division. The results of the first week-end's general solicitation brought in an additional $21,386 from Residential, and further subscriptions from Advance Gifts, Manufacturing, Mercantile, and Municipal Divisions are estimated to bring the total for today's report luncheon to an amount in excess of $135,000, or 46 per cent of the Newton goal.

The campaign dinner at the Newton High School on October 2, opening the Red Feather campaign in Newton, was a huge success. Dr. J. Seelye Bixler, president of Colby College, speaking on the subject "Let's Be Personal," said: "Ours is an impersonal age. Personal qualities are being lost sight of. The nineteenth century was a century of democracy. The twentieth century is moving towards a century of totalitarianism. There is too much tendency to divide into different pressure and sectarian groups."

Dr. Bixler further stated: "The Community Chest offers an outlet for those who want to do public good and who want to be of influence in serving the public need. Working for the Community Chest is democracy at its best. Any city which has a Community Chest is a more desirable city to live in because it has found a way to bring all peoples together to work co-operatively. The Community Chest idea has caught fire. It is hard to calculate its value. The hope of democracy goes hand in hand with the success of community service."

Edward A. Hanify, chairman of the Greater Boston Red Feather Campaign, stated that it was a stimulating experience to attend an affair like the Newton "Kick-off" meeting, and that the fine attendance and enthusiasm was an example of the service that Newton citizens are giving to their fellow men. He urged that opportunity be given to every individual to make a subscription so that maximum assistance may be given in the fine work being done by the Red Feather services in Newton and throughout Greater Boston.

Harold T. Pillsbury, Newton campaign chairman, presided at the dinner and announced the results of the various advance divisions. Mayor Theodore R. Lockwood read his Community Chest Proclamation, and F. Brittain Kennedy, president of the Newton Community Chorus of the Newtons under the leadership of James W. Rowley, gave a splendid program which received a long and well-deserved applause.

The divisions and sections which were reported as having reached 100 per cent for the "Kick-off" dinner were: Newton-Wellesley Hospital with 122 per cent; West Newton Mercantile with 100 per cent; Municipal Engineers with 116 per cent; Police Department, 108 per cent; Welfare Department, 108 per cent; City Clerk's Office with 102 per cent; and Veterans' Service Department with 100 per cent. Six public schools exceeded their quotas, with the following results: Emerson, 173 per cent; Hawthorne, 125 per cent; Pierce, 111 per cent; Franklin, 110 per cent; Oak Hill, 107 per cent; and Peabody Home, 106 per cent.

The Residential Division is making every effort to complete its calls over the coming week-end, so that goals may be reached at its report night on Tuesday, November 1. On the first report night last Monday, Newton Highlands led with 32.5 per cent of its goal reached, followed closely by Oak Hill with 28.4 per cent; Waban with 27.8 per cent; Lower Falls with 27.2 per cent, and Auburndale with 26.4 per cent.

Endorses Candidacy Of Mayor Lockwood

The Middlesex Civic League in a letter to Mayor Theodore R. Lockwood, has offered its support of his candidacy for reelection. The letter reads:

"It is with a great deal of pleasure that I am privileged to offer you the whole-hearted support of the Middlesex Civic League to accomplish your reelection as Mayor of Newton. "When in your first campaign we gave you our support, we did so because we felt and hoped that you would make a good mayor, but now that you have served with such distinction, a credit to yourself and to all those who helped you in your first campaign, we now give you our support with full knowledge of your capacity. "Not only do we trust that you will be successful, but we

Newton Highlands Branch, Red Cross

The executive board of the Newton Highlands Branch of the American Red Cross met at Mrs. Louis H. Marshall's home on October 18, 1944. Coffee was served at 10:30 a.m. and a business meeting followed at 11 a.m.

Reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and approved. A letter of resignation from Mrs. Lavery was read by the secretary and it was voted that the secretary write to Mrs. Lavery telling her that her resignation was not accepted as the board felt that she was too valuable a member to lose.

Mrs. Marshall spoke of the many happy years she enjoyed as chairman and expressed her thanks for the beautiful carnations given her by the board. Mrs. Wood, as her first official act as the new chairman, moved that Mrs. Marshall be appointed honorary chairman. This motion was very enthusiastically seconded and the vote was unanimous.

400,000 People Paid More for Their Cars than a Cadillac Costs!

You will probably find it difficult to believe the statement which appears above as the headline for this message.

But records indicate that it is true, nevertheless.

The reason for this is found in a surprising fact: There are eight other motor car manufacturers who produce certain models which actually cost more than the lowest-priced Cadillac.

Approximately four hundred thousand of these higher-priced models have been produced and sold in the post-war era.

Undoubtedly, a great many of the people who bought these cars did so because Cadillacs were not available at the time they wanted delivery—a situation now happily being remedied. But it is doubtless true that many owners of these higher-priced cars don't realize what they did.

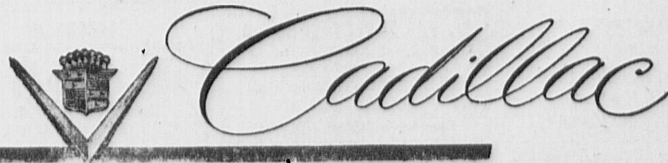

Cadillac has such a wonderful world-wide reputation for goodness and quality that many who can afford it mistakenly conclude it is beyond their means. So they pay the price of a Cadillac—and don't get a Cadillac.

We don't believe you would want that to happen to you. So we suggest that you come in and let us give you the actual delivered price here in this community for a Cadillac Sixty-one, equipped exactly as you want it. Let that be your economic yardstick as you select your car.

Bear in mind, too, that a Cadillac is an economical car to own, as well as a reasonable car to buy. Its freedom from the need of repairs is sensational. It gives gasoline mileage which actually approaches that of the lowest-priced popular cars. And it lasts so long that its full life-span has never been measured.

Better come in today and get the whole Cadillac story. If you pay for a Cadillac, we think you will want to make sure that you get one.
